Jackie Littlemore

Jackie's poppies are talk of the town

A RUGELEY grandmother has proved she has the poppy appeal ahead of Remembrance Day with her own range of unique designer poppies.

Seventy two-year-old Jackie Littlemore has been keeping her fingers busy this year, crocheting more than 300 poppies in time for Armistice Day.

Jackie set about creating her own designer poppies after a close friend told her about one she had seen the Queen Mother wearing in an old news clip.

The grandmother, a member of the Etching Hill Women's Institute, was pleasantly surprised when her poppies sold out during a tabletop charity sale last year and so decided to approach the British Legion and make a donation with the money she had raised.

Since then Jackie's poppies have become the talk of the town with many people stopping her in the street to ask for one. Jackie doesn't leave the house without a few poppies in her handbag just to keep up with demand.

A lot of time and effort goes into the creation of her work and she spends on average 45 minutes creating each poppy. She makes them in three sizes,small costs £1, medium £2 and a large poppy costs £5.

Jackie, who only learnt to crochet 15 years ago, is delighted at the response she has received. She said: "It is a great cause and I've really appreciated the response I've had.

"I am trying to make them a little different each year to keep them unique.

"Members of my family have been involved in the army and I think that people talk about the war a lot more and I think it is a good idea for people to honour not only the fallen but people who are fighting for your country. The poppies have really taken off, I would have never believed it.

"It is really gratifying. I've really enjoyed making the poppies and have met lots of new people as a consequence."

There will be no rest for Jackie after November 11 as she wants to raise even more money for the British Legion next year and so will restart her crocheting almost straight away.

She said: "I will start doing them gradually all year round so that hopefully I can raise £1,000 .

"I want to see how far I can go by using my skills and my spare time so as of yet I haven't got anybody else involved to help me make them."

CHANCE ENCOUNTER RESCUES BUSINESS

Nappy Cakes lead to nest egg

by TIM SPIERS

cannockchron@expressandstar.co.uk

A HAIRDRESSER in Hednesford has been saved from financial ruin thanks to two chance encounters with customers.

Amanda Craggs runs AJ's Trim and Tone on Cardigan Place but faced closure when the recession hit her profits hard.

In a desperate attempt to raise much-needed funds she decided to sell off second hand goods from home earlier this year. These included three teddies that she generously gift-wrapped with an Easter egg for the recipients.

A visitor to the shop noticed one of the items on display and asked if she could order one for herself – Amanda duly obliged and began stocking the teddies and eggs in her window, resulting in 16 orders on the first day.

Another customer commented on the quality of the items and suggested that Amanda would be good at making Nappy Cakes – designs of baby-friendly items such as prams, constructed entirely of nappies.

A few hours of research later, during which she discovered the burgeoning popularity of Nappy Cakes, particularly in America, Amanda decided to go for it and her new business, AJ's Creative Gifts, was born.

Six months later and the company is thriving, even threatening to outgrow the Trim and Tone business altogether.

The 41-year-old Rawnsley resident said it had been a whirlwind few months during which her life had been completely transformed.

"It was just a little sideline at first but it's completely taken off," she said.

"To think it's just come just from having three teddy bears to get rid of.

"It's actually saved my business as we were on the brink of closure."

Amanda now has a regular customer base, working out of the same building as Trim and Tone, but is looking into expanding into online sales.

As well as Nappy Cake prams she also sells trains and motorbikes, with more Christmas designs in the pipeline before the Easter rush for her teddy and egg sets begins again.

"I still can't believe my luck really," she added.

Random

"The second encounter with the woman who mentioned Nappy Cakes was completely random – I've never seen her before or since.

"I guess she's my guardian angel!

"I think my story gives hope to any struggling businessperson that a great idea can just around the corner.

"Something could happen completely by accident which transforms your life, as it has done with mine."

Physiotherapist Laura Brown, front, with Rachel Cooke and Alex Brown

Help plea on Mexican mercy mission

A CANNOCK physiotherapist is appealing for financial help as she prepares to fly to Mexico to undertake the challenge of a lifetime.

Laura Brown, who works at Cannock Chase Hospital, travelled to Puerto Vallarta last year for a three-month placement, helping provide disabled children and adults with quality healthcare. She enjoyed the experience so much she's now returning to launch her own volunteer base, which she hopes will become a permanent agency in the city.

The 29-year-old sets off in December for six months but this time the trip will be completely self-funded and Laura is going it alone.

She is calling on individuals and businesses to help her by donating much-needed funds. Fundraisers have been organised, including a salsa night and raffle at the hospital next Wednesday (November 17) from 5.30 to 8pm. Tickets are £5 on the door.

Laura said: "The long term aim is to try to set up an agency to place more qualified individuals in a permanent base. It's an amazing country but some people have nothing and need our help."

Auction house in TV date

TV PRESENTER Angela Rippon was at a Penkridge auction house yesterday (Wednesday).

The newscaster was at Cuttlestones with a film crew to record Cash in the Attic – the third time the auction house has featured on the show.

Next Wednesday, 30 Staffordshire Art Fund members will visit for a sneak preview of a Fine Art sale taking place on Friday November 19.

For £10 members will have the chance to get items valued, enjoy a talk and raise money for the Art Fund which acquires art for UK museums and galleries.

Ben Gamble MD and head auctioneer at the Pinfold Lane auctioneers, said: "We're delighted to welcome Art Fund members to Cuttlestones."

A full catalogue is available from tomorrow (Friday) at www.cuttlestones.co.uk

Statue is restored

A DEER sculpture ruined by a mindless act of vandalism has regained pride of place after being restored.

The statue which was placed outside Cannock Chase Council's Civic Centre, in Beecroft Road, was targeted by vandals on September 23.

Antlers and ears were ripped off the sculpture.

A sculptor had to remove the head completely in order to replace the ears and antlers in a studio.

With new antlers and ears intact the sculptor was able to reattach the head to the deer's body over the weekend.

Switch-on

JLS lookalike group – Just Look Similar – will switch on Cannock's Christmas lights next Friday (November 19). They will join Hednesford dancers Step 1 and singer Danny Mac at the switch-on at 7pm. Cannock Chase Council has offered free parking from 5pm.

Laura's future looks light fantastic with dance class

A DANCER from Cheslyn Hay is putting her newfound qualifications to good use by setting up her own class for children.

Laura Ranford, who teaches at the Brian and Angela Mills School of Dance, in Cannock, was awarded an International Dance Teachers Association qualification last year.

The 27-year-old later discovered that her examiner had nominated her for the prestigious John Dilworth Scholarship in the latin category.

After submitting an essay and being interviewed by the board of directors, Laura was awarded the scholarship ahead of 764 professional candidates worldwide.

Now she's putting on her own weekly class, Dance Dynamics, which starts at Shareshill Village Hall tomorrow (Friday).

"I'm a bit nervous but really looking forward to it," Laura said.

"It was a real honour to win the scholarship last year, an absolutely fantastic experience.

"I hope to become an examiner myself one day, but for now I'd like to get as many children as possible to attend my new class."

There is no joining fee for Dance Dynamics, and classes costing £3.50 per session.

Lessons for four-to-seven year olds will take place every Friday from 4.30-5.15pm, followed by seven-year-olds and older from 5.15-6pm and 6-6.45pm.

Laura also offers adult and other classes, as well as private lessons in latin, ballroom, freestyle, street, rock 'n' roll, salsa, classical and modern sequence.

Contact Laura on 07811 389996 for details.

Ghouls help town shops banish spectre of slump

TRADERS in Rugeley shook off the cobwebs of the economic gloom to put on a Halloween spectacular in the town centre.

As part of the Shop Local campaign, store owners hosted the event themselves, and ghouls, witches and pumpkins all took to the streets.

The Staffordshire County Council-led Shop Local initiative also covers Cannock and Hednesford and aims to raise the profile of the three towns, encouraging residents to support their local shopkeepers.

Chase 3, a public and private partnership agency formed to promote the areas, is working alongside the county council, as well as Cannock Chase District Council, to put on trade-boosting activities.

A Shop Local Lottery has also been launched, with 1,600 tickets sold for the October draw which carried with it an £800 jackpot.

Staffordshire County Councillor Ray Easton said: "Rugeley's Halloween event was a fantastic day for all the family. People came into town to support their local traders and have some fantastic fun."

Stretched

Angi Cooney, from Rugeley Traders' Association, said: "We celebrated Halloween in style. The lottery is another opportunity for everyone to come along, support the local economy and our traders."

One business to benefit from a Halloween boost in profits was electrical store Webbs, of Cannock Road, Chadsmoor.

It ran an annual promotion at the end of October, with sales for the following 10 days more than £150,000 higher than in the same stage in 2009.

On the opening day of the promotion the doors of the store did not close till 8.45pm, with best selling items including 3D televisions and LED TV & blu-ray recorders.

Manager Tim Walker said: "We were totally blown away by the response. The store has never been so busy and we were really stretched but our customers were very patient and good natured."

Webbs managing director Steve Webb added: "I think people have had enough doom and gloom and I can sense some optimism returning."

Early tribute to the fallen of world wars

Wreaths are laid at the cenotaph in Union Street, Bridgtown, Cannock, during last Sunday's Remembrance parade

A PARADE and service of remembrance was held by the Royal Engineers Association in Bridgtown, Cannock.

Former servicemen in the village formed up at Park Street and paraded through to Cross Street and Broad Street before a service was held at the war memorial in Union Street, which lists almost 50 Bridgtown who were killed in two world wars.

Bob Leighton, aged 78, who served with the Royal Engineers Association in Egypt and Germany during the 1950s, was parade marshal.

He said: "An event like this is very important for the village as there were servicemen who lost lives from Bridgtown in both wars. It was well supported as we had the Salvation Army band there, the chairmen of both Cannock Chase District Council and Bridgtown Parish Council, 20 standard bearers, the Army Cadet Force, and numerous ex-servicemen."

The event is organised on behalf of the parish council by the Royal Engineers Association and traditionally takes place a week before remembrance services across the rest of the country.

Village focus point for weekly walkers

WALKERS can put their best foot forward for a healthy stroll around Huntington each Friday from next week, November 19.

It is free to attend, lasts around 45 minutes and is open to all comers. Walkers set out from Littleton Green Community School, Colliers Way, Huntington, at 9.30am.

Councillor Brian Edwards, leader of South Staffordshire Council, said: "Our new weekly walk in Huntington is a great way to meet new people and discover the village's unique history and environment."

For more details call Shelley Squire, the council's health and wellbeing co-ordinator, on 01902 696682.

Rockers take bow at Civic

BLACK Country Communion, the acclaimed Anglo-US rock supergroup fronted by Cannock's Glenn Hughes, make their Black Country debut at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on December 29.

Tickets priced £40 (standing) and £45 (seated balcony) go on general sale next Friday, , November 19.

The band features former Deep Purple and Trapeze singer Hughes alongside top American blues rock guitarist Joe Bonamassa and former Dream Theater keyboardist Derek Sherinian.

On drums is Dudley-born Jason Bonham, son of Led Zeppelin's John Bonham.

Their self-titled debut album has had rave reviews and has gone top of the rock charts.

No heating for school

A CHASETOWN school was closed for a day after a mains gas pipe was damaged.

Chase Terrace Technology College was left without heating after the supply was cut off on Monday afternoon, November 8.

The school was closed the following day while repair work was carried out, but reopened as normal yesterday.

Art sellers go to wall

A CANNOCK-based art company has gone in to voluntary liquidation after nearly four years of business.

Aurora Fine Art, which traded from Walsall Road, made the decision to wind up the business at a company meeting on October 19.

The firm mainly sold display art, conservatory furniture and blinds.

Focus on eyesight

OVER-50s are being invited to a free talk in Penkridge next week.

Ed Teal from Optelec will demonstrate the latest aids for failing eyesight.

Wellbeing group PACE 2000 has organised the event on Friday, November 19, at the Haling Dene Centre, in Cannock Road, from 1.15pm.

Wagner wows at Italian evening

CHARISMATIC Brazilian X Factor contestant Wagner performed one of his last gigs at an Italian restaurant near Rugeley before becoming a huge hit on the TV talent show.

Wagner performed at Il Marchigiano's Italian restaurant, based at the Plum Pudding, in Armitage, just days before his X Factor audition.

The Brazilian, now living in Dudley, sang Italian opera then but is now is proving to be a huge hit with his fun stage performances.

Staff at the popular venue are now urging customers to vote for Wagner.

Plum Pudding owner Roam Fiero booked Wagner to perform at the restaurant's monthly Italian nights just before he entered the auditions.

Roma said: "At the time he was short of work and was desperate to be booked for the night. He was so passionate about his singing and won me over. We decided to book him for one of our Italian nights.

"He has an image of being a bit of a ladies' man and I have to say he is a bit of a charmer. I found him to be a pure gentleman.

"Some people say he can't sing but on the night I thought he had a wonderful singing voice. He wasn't singing the type of songs you see him performing on the X Factor but lovely Italian opera.

"I think our customers really enjoyed themselves. He mentioned to me he was auditioning for the X Factor but you don't imagine he would have the success he has had. I wish him all the best.

"Everyone here is voting for him and we are urging everyone else to do the same.

"I shouldn't think we would be able to afford him once the X factor has finished this year especially if he wins.

"But we can say he performed for us at our Italian night and what a great night it was."

The Italian nights are held on the last Saturday of every month.

Tickets are £24.95 including a glass of wine on arrival and a six course meal followed by entertainment. To book a place at the Italian night, call 01543 490330.

SINGER Sheryl Crow and Toy Story star Buzz Lightyear put in an appearance at a Cannock primary school.

But rather than turning up in the flesh, the two famous faces were represented in scarecrow form. They took their place alongside dozens of other sackcloth and straw creations at Bridgtown Primary.

Pupils and parents were encouraged to create the straw effigies as part of one of the school's regular half-term projects.

They were displayed in the school playground with parents invited in to inspect the creations. The school choir also performed and the Newlife Foundation set up a stall selling jewellery. Previous half-term assignments have in- cluded making masks and festive decorations.

Jo Raybould, headteacher at the North Street school, said the latest project had proved so popular that it could expand into a full-blown scarecrow festival next year. She said: "The scarecrows were quite exceptional.

"It's quite nice to give the children something to do during the holidays, and projects like this also link home and school and give us an opportunity to meet the parents.

"Hopefully, next year we will be able to get the wider community involved."

Security is reviewed after raid at pavilion

PARISH councillors are to review security measures after a community building was targeted by raiders,

The pavilion in Jones's Lane, Great Wyrley, was hit by raiders early on Monday November 1 when machinery and tools were stolen.

It is the third time the parish council-controlled building has been targeted in the past few months and there have also been a series of attempted break-ins.

Security at the site has already been stepped up, with a new steel door, locks and steel grill installed.

But on this occasion, the thieves came in through the roof, removing tiles and the structure's inner lining.

Anyone with information can call Staffordshire Police on 0300 1234455.

Liam fund gives £5,000 to meningitis charity

Richard Holmes and John Dale from the Liam Keeling Memorial Committee

A FURTHER £5,000 has been presented to Meningitis UK a year after a Cheslyn Hay youngster's death.

Since the death of 13-year-old Liam Keeling last year his family have raised funds for the charity. A fund in memory of the former Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School pupil has now topped £60,000.

A presentation was held at the Asda store in Cannock on Monday of last week.

Liam's parents, Andy and Georgina, are supporting a Meningitis UK campaign to highlight the dangers of the disease.

Liam, a talented player with Wyrley Juniors FC, died in October last year, two weeks after celebrating his 13th birthday.

Mr and Mrs Keeling held an open house at their home in Littlewood Lane on the first anniversary of his death. Mr Keeling, 50, said they wanted to make sure people were more aware of the disease and how quickly it could strike.

Liam did not have any of the traditional symptoms associated with meningitis

Mr Keeling said the family had been comforted by the level of support and enthusiasm for fundraising for the charity.

Symptons

A Meningitis UK trailer is stationed in the Asda car park off Avon Road all this week to highlight the symptoms of the disease and the need to act quickly

Free wallet-sized symptoms cards are being given out to shoppers from the customer service desk and baby changing rooms at the store.

The charity is also offering the public free symptoms information packs to help raise awareness.

The money raised by the Liam Keeling Memorial Fund is being used to fund work to find a vaccine for all forms of the devastating disease.

Fund chairman Richard Holmes said: "The success of the campaign is down to Liam's popularity.

"He was so well-loved and his death came as a huge shock to everyone.

"We're amazed ourselves at how much has been raised. We've never struggled to get people along to events, which is a sign of how strongly people feel about the cause."

Get stuck in, website boss tells town shops

THE owner of a website supporting shops in Cannock is urging them to do more to compete with the major chains.

According to a new survey commissioned by website thebestof.co.uk the majority of British people believe their local high street is in decline and supermarkets are responsible.

A further 60 per cent of those surveyed agreed that the Government isn't doing enough to encourage and support small retailers.

The survey is in contrast to the latest CBI figures which actually suggest high street sales are up, with 58 per cent of retailers saying that the volume of sales rose during October.

Steve Mallows, owner and director of The Best of Cannock Ltd said: "It's interesting that there is still a strong perception that the high street is in decline – especially when it comes to local retailers and small businesses.

"With the rise in VAT next year, this could become an even bigger issue.

"What shop owners need to understand is there are many ways that they can compete with major chains.

"For example, by setting up special offers specific to the local area, and by building a reputation as a local champion you can really capture the imagination of the community."

Each business featured on www.thebestof.co.uk/cannock has been recommended by local shoppers.

Sessions look like big draw

BUDDING artists can learn how to draw cartoons at Norton Canes library over the next seven weeks.

A free cartoon animation course was starting this Thursday.

The course is funded by the Big Lottery is held place every Thursday from 4pm.

The two-hour sessions will be delivered by the local award-winning Greenwood Studios in Cannock.

It will teach people about story boarding, 2D and 3D modelling and stop motion.

Cannock Chase County Councillor John Rowley said "This fantastic event is a great opportunity for young people to try something completely different and produce their very own film."

Booking is essential. For more information contact the library on 01543 279592.

Residents get warning

HOUSEHOLDERS in Lichfield have been warned to be on their guard following reports of suspicious doorstep salesmen. Police and neighbourhood watch officials issued it after people claiming to be ex-offenders on a probation scheme called at homes.

They offered dusters and household cleaning products to residents in the Boley Park area over the past few weeks.

Band's plea

A BAND based in Rugeley is looking for a rhythm guitarist. The Content was formed by musicians, aged 14 and 15, six months ago. Anyone aged between 14 and 16 interested should call 07805 405298.

Brakes put on banning boy racers

PLANS to ban boy racers from a Cannock ring road have been put on hold, highways chiefs have confirmed. The county council initiative would have banned car cruising on Eastern Way, known as the Orbital ring road.

The ban, which would have been backed by a two-year High Court injunction, was first suggested in February, following a number of tragedies along the stretch of road.

Bosses at Staffordshire County Council insist that they are still committed to improving safety measures at the site.

However, they say that court action would have significant "cost implications" and is now considered a "last resort".

Eastern Way and the surrounding car parks have often been used for meetings by boy racers.

An injunction would have seen car cruisers facing a two-year prison sentence and an uncapped fine for gathering at the spot.

But Staffordshire County Council bosses say they have seen an improvement since mobile police patrols were stepped up.

Signs and crash barriers have been upgraded, and there are plans to install concrete ramps for mobile speed cameras.

Discuss

County councillor Patrick Corfield, the Tory member for Cannock, said: "We are working with colleagues at the police and district council to monitor the situation at Orbital Way."

He added: "Another option that has been discussed is to introduce an order in the area which could result in injunctions being handed to motorists taking part in anti-social behaviour.

"In recent weeks the problem has reduced thanks to our partnership working.

"Introducing such an order does have cost implications for the county and district councils and the police.

"This would be a last resort but is still an option open to us," he said.

Bike display scheme set for rejection

A SCHEME to create a showroom at Pottal Pool, near Huntington, to display a collection of rare and limited edition motorcycles is set to be turned down by South Staffordshire Council's regulatory committee.

An application to demolish a detached garage, shed and stores and replace them with a garage/showroom and workshop extension to an integral garage at Pottal Pool House, Stafford Road, has been submitted to the council.

The committee was being recommended to refuse the scheme this week.

Planning officers say it is not an appropriate development in the green belt and would be a disproportionate addition to the existing dwelling which has already had an extension built to the extent that the "footprint" of the original building has doubled in size.

The agents for the applicants say the secure showroom is needed to store the collection properly. Much of the collection currently has to be kept off site.

The workshop is needed to maintain the motorcycles.

Concern

The agent says the scheme would tidy up the site, which is screened by trees, and remove unsightly prefabricated storage units.

Huntington councillor Jeff Ashley has expressed concern that the scheme would involve oversize extensions and has called the application in for determination by the committee.

Day takes off for youngsters

Aaron Whitehouse, six, and back, from left, Nathan Clift, seven, Autumn Westwood, seven, Maisey Hearn, six, join in the WOW day

PUPILS enjoyed a picnic as part of a special journey-themed day.

All week Year 1 and 2 pupils at Springhill Primary School, Mossbank Avenue, Burntwood, have been focusing on journeys by land, air, sea and into space. The youngsters came into school yesterday out of uniform and enjoyed a day of fun activities.

About 70 pupils took part and they were taken on a series of imaginary journeys in school, visiting three classrooms to participate in a variety of creative activities.

They also enjoyed a picnic in the school hall with their friends and teachers.

Year 1 teacher Miss Kerry Glenn, who helped organise WOW Day, said the pupils had thoroughly enjoyed their day.

"It went fantastic and the kids really enjoyed themselves," she said. "It was something a bit different for them. There was around 70 children who took part and we all went into the school hall at the end and had a lovely picnic."

Canal bridge to be closed

A SECTION of a Rugeley road over a canal is to be closed to traffic.

Staffordshire County Council is planning to make a traffic order to close Leathermill Lane from 34 metres east of the junction with Bryans Lane to the junction with Love Lane.

The closure of the bridge over the Trent and Mersey Canal will involve extensive detours for traffic via Station Road to the north.

The order will provide exceptions for emergency vehicles, the Environment Agency and for maintenance workers.

A copy of the draft order is available in Rugeley Library in Anson Street. Anyone who wishes to object needs to write to the county council's development services directorate in Riverway, Stafford by no later than November 26.

Museum opens late for festivities

THE Museum of Cannock Chase will hold a series of late-night openings in the run up to Christmas. The first is this Thursday, when the attraction, in Hednesford's Valley Drive, will be open until 8pm. The museum shop will be selling a wide range of goods including Christmas decorations and stocking fillers. The 1940s room will be decorated with a wartime Christmas theme and the galleries and coffee shop will also be open.

The following Thursday will also see a screening of the Friends of the Museum's latest DVD, Moore's Angels to Lucas Ladies, which looks at the history of Hednesford's Lucas factory. Other late-night openings are November 30 and December 14.

Steve Hopley

Steve's donor pledge taken up 12 years on

A POLICE Community Support Officer from Cannock has pledged to give his bone marrow to an unknown recipient after signing up to a donor register 12 years ago.

PCSO Steve Hopley, who is stationed in Wolverhampton, received a call in October to say a patient matching his tissue type was in urgent need of stem cells.

Steve, aged 52 who married with two grown-up daughters, said: "It came out the blue; I put my name down all those years ago and pretty much forgot I was on the register.

"I got the call and was nervous but happy that I've eventually got the chance to help someone."

Steve is yet to learn the sex or age of the patient but will find out on the day of donation.

Already a blood donor, he has given over 35 pints of blood during his life, Steve said joining the Antony Nolan bone marrow register was just another way of helping others.

After medical assessments and injections throughout November the final procedure (apheresis) will take place on November 22 when his blood will be filtered to collect the stem cells.

Steve added: "I hope one day to meet the person I donated my cells to, but am just privileged to be able to help.My family, especially my daughter who is a nurse, are all proud of what I'm doing and although nervous I am really looking forward to hopefully saving a life."

Steve will get the opportunity to meet the beneficiary two years on from the transplant.

The Antony Nolan Trust saves lives by matching donors to patients in desperate need of a stem cell transplant. The trust urgently needs more people aged 18 to 40 to sign up, in particular male donors and those from UK minority ethnic backgrounds.

Police set to hold meetings

POLICE are to hold a series of community meetings in the Cannock Chase and South Staffordshire areas

Cannock neighbourhood policing unit is holding meetings tomorrow (Friday) at Netto in Surrey Close, Cannock, from 2-2.30pm and on December 5 at St Stephens Methodist Church, Bideford Way from 3-3.30pm.

Meetings for the Rugeley unit will be on December 9 in the layby opposite Westgate Playpark from 6.30-7pm, at the junction of Valley Road and Cannock Wood Street 7- 7.30pm and at Cannock Wood village hall, in Buds Road, from 7.30-8pm.

Watling neighbourhood policing unit meetings will be held on December 1 at Cheslyn Hay village hall, Pinfold Lane, from 3-5pm, and on December 14 between 2pm and 4pm the Penkridge library, in Bellbrook.

Councils will share service

A FULL meeting of Cannock Chase Council has formally agreed to Stafford Borough taking over responsibility for administration of its building control services.

The shared service and the sharing of information technology will save the two authorities £190,000.

Mountain bike trails on Chase face sell-off

PARTS of Cannock Forest including some mountain bike trails could be sold off. Environment minister Jim Paice said the Government is considering selling off some woodlands.

In an open letter to MPs he said that the Public Bodies bill would allow the coalition to deliver a "modernisation of the forestry legislation."

Areas popular with mountain bikers such as the trails from the Birches Valley Visitor Centre, near Rugeley are being considered for sale.

Mr Paice said that they will carry out a public consultation and invite views from a wide range of potential private and civil society partners.

Forestry Commission spokesman Stuart Burgess said that the Government was giving a commitment to maintaining public access to any woodland that was sold off.

Planting

The Public Bodies Bill, published on October29, contains a specific section on forestry including a new approach to ownership and management, with a reducing role for the state.

The Forestry Commission started planting trees on parts of Chase in the 1920s.

An online petition by 38 Degrees – Save Our Forests – Don't Sell Them Off To The Highest Bidder – has gathered 38,000 signatures opposing the sell off.

The Woodland Trust said that it supports private ownership of land but has expressed concerns over the future of ancient woodland sites.

Time plea over plan for mayor

A LABOUR councillor claims Cannock Chase Council did not carry out sufficient consultation over a possible switch to having an elected mayor for the district.

The council only received 37 replies to the recent consultation.

Last week, a full meeting of the council agreed there should not be a referendum over changing from the current system of a leader and cabinet.

But Councillor George Adamson claimed many people had been upset at the possibility of having an elected mayor foisted upon them and said fuller consultation should have been carried out.

He added that he thought the council should go back to the old system. Council leader Councillor Neil Stanley said it would have been costly to hold a referendum over the issue.

"It would have been crazy to jump the gun," he added.

MORE than 200 photographs have gone on display at Chasewater Innovation Centre.

Cannock Photographic Society is staging its annual exhibition at the centre.

The society's 53rd exhibition runs until November 28 at the centre, near the entrance to the Chasewater Country Park between Burntwood and Brownhills.

There is free admission to the exhibition which features work by many of the society's nearly 100-strong membership.

The society, which meets each Thursday in Mill Street Methodist Church Hall at 7.45pm, was originally founded in 1953.

John Cartlidge, society chairman, said there were 275 entries to the exhibition but not all can be displayed. They were judged by Ralph Duckett from Burton upon Trent Photographic Society.

The awards were presented at the society meeting last week by Mr Duckett.

Mr Cartlidge said: "We have had 10 new members join already this season.

"Anyone who visits the exhibition and would look to find out more should come along to our meetings."

Anyone who would like to know more can contact Mr Cartlidge on 01543 571687. There is more information on the exhibition on www.cannockps.co.uk

Last barrier to revamp taken down

THE Environment Secretary has decided against calling in the Hednesford town centre regeneration scheme.

Cabinet member for town centre regeneration Councillor Pat Williams told a full meeting of Cannock Chase Council last week that it removed the last barrier to the scheme.

Work on the £50 million project is set to start early next year.

The Chase Gateway scheme will include an 85,000 sq ft Tesco Extra store that will create up to 600 new jobs.

The project, which is a joint venture between regeneration specialists St Modwen and Cannock Chase Council, will also include another discount supermarket, smaller retail units and a new community centre, cadet hut and bingo hall.

Planning permission for the development was finally approved in September.

The scheme is seen as the key to reviving the fortunes of Hednesford town centre.

The council has been working for years to put together a package of investment for the town.

Carers get healthy tips

HEALTHY heart sessions for carers are being held in Cannock. The free awareness sessions for unpaid family carers are on offer from the Carers' Association Southern Staffordshire with help from Heart Research UK.

Carers can find out how making even small changes to diet and lifestyle can support their own and their family's heart health. There also will be blood pressure checks and medicine information at some sessions and free health goody bags.

Cynthia Boden, learning and leisure co-ordinator for CASS explained: "Heart disease can affect anyone – at different times of life, women are as much at risk as men.

"We hope informal carers will take advantage of this opportunity to come along and learn more about heart heath presented in a fun and friendly way."

Sessions are taking place this Friday and on November 19 and December 10 in the Avon Centre, Avon Road, from 10am to 12.30pm.

Carers can find out more or book a place at the event by contacting the learning and leisure team at CASS on 01785 606675.

History group's coffee morning

BRIDGTOWN and District Local History Society is holding a coffee morning at the Community Centre, opposite the Ramada Hotel, next Wednesday (November 17).

David Battersby and Derrick Middleton will present the first in a series of talks on places of interest from 10am. The area being covered is Walkmill Lane, known as Vine Lane to locals, and Watling Street (west). Some new photographs will be on display with early maps

The society welcomes anyone interested in local history (particularly Bridgtown) to attend.

Plans for cemetery

PLANS have been submitted to Cannock Chase Council for a £3m cemetery south of Rugeley which will create 12 jobs.

The proposals are similar to a previous application withdrawn by the applicant, Woodland Burial Park, in February when it was recommended for refusal.

Woodland's managing director Nicholas Taylor said he was optimistic the company had addressed all of the concerns raised before and was confident the cemetery – east of the existing Stile Cop Cemetery in Stile Cop Road – would be approved.

He said: "We have looked at all the issues and I am confident with the revised plans."

Previous concerns related to car park spaces and access to the cemetery from surrounding roads.

Praise for musicians

YOUNG musicians have been praised by the head of a Rugeley school.

Liz Merryman, head of Hagley Park Sports College, said they had worked closely with Rugeley Music Partnership to enable them to experience a wide range of higher quality music making.

Pupils also went on a residential course at Ingestre Hall, near Stafford, which focused on creative music making for 30 14-to-18-year-olds.

"Hagley Park Sports College students have excelled again," said Mrs Merryman.

Churchgoers rally for parcels plea

Christmas boxed up for youngsters

Evelyn Gelder, who donated more than 100 packages for the St Anne's Church shoebox appeal

CHRISTMAS is all boxed up for deprived eastern European children – thanks to kind-hearted Burntwood worshippers.

Nearly 2,000 shoeboxes have been donated by generous parishioners for the Chasetown church appeal.

One member of the St Anne's congregation, Evelyn Gelder, made up more than 100 packages of her own.

St Anne's held an All Age Worship service last Sunday (November 7) that saw the collection of the parcels. Rev Vivienne Hatton thanked the community for their generosity after 1,680 parcels were counted for the charity drive.

Deputy Head of Springhill Primary School, Eluned Lane, attended with the children's shoeboxes.

International Aid Trust's Michael and Alison Cardy collected the boxes, which were sent out to Romania and other Eastern European countries on Monday (November 8).

A letter was read out by Michael Cardy from a lady who now lives in England but received a shoebox in Eastern Europe more than 15 years ago and who still treasures her knitted teddy bear. Mrs Gelder, first collected for the shoebox appeal last year.

She said: "I can't wait to start again for next year and just wish I could be in Romania when the children and adults receive their gifts."

On Saturday (November 13), the Second City Sound Barbershop singers will be performing at St Anne's at 7.30pm with tickets at £4 including refreshments and cakes.

Sunday's Remembrance Day service will begin at 10.45am, at the Chasetown Cenotaph, followed by a church service at 11.15am.

7/7 hero talks about attacks

A HERO of the 7/7 terror attacks has returned to his old school, Norton Canes High, to talk to pupils.

Paul Dadge , aged 33, spoke to pupils in years seven, eight and 11 last Wednesday about his experiences five years ago. He will be at the school again this week to speak to years nine and 10. The talks have been arranged by the school's assistant head Ian Oliphant.

Both Mr Dadge and his brother went to the school and many of the teachers who taught him are still there. Mr Dadge, who now lives in Stafford, was hailed a hero after helping a woman to safety following the suicide bomb attacks.

He was then a part-time firefighter. Mr Dadge was travelling to work on the tube as three suicide bombers blew themselves up on different trains. A fourth bomb exploded on a bus.

Mr Dadge, who became the face of the aftermath of the bombings after helping victims, is to give evidence at the inquest of the 7/7 terrorist attacks. He has since been critical of the emergency services and said ambulances were slow to arrive.

Brothers' suspended prison term for assault

TWO Cannock brothers battered a neighbour hours after one of them was given the all-clear by a cancer specialist, a court heard.

Victim Wayne Pearson was punched by Gareth Turnbull and smacked with a baseball bat by his brother Alan outside his home in Bowes Drive, Chadsmoor, on September 4.

The brothers were both drunk, having been out celebrating after Gareth was told his cancer was in remission, Stafford Crown Court was told.

When they got home by taxi in the early hours, they assaulted Mr Pearson, whose girlfriend was babysitting for the brothers' sister.

Mr Paul Farrow, prosecuting, said Gareth started by punching Mr Pearson. He had no idea why he was being assaulted by someone he knew and regarded as a friend.

Gareth went in to his house, but came out again when he heard comments being made by Mr Pearson, who was punched again.

Blows

At that moment, Alan Turnbull came over the fence carrying a baseball bat and Mr Pearson felt a number of blows to his head. He ran away from the brothers, who chased him down the street.

Alan Turnbull, aged 29, of Bowes Drive, admitted unlawful wounding and his brother, aged 26, of the same address, admitted assault causing actual bodily harm.

But Judge Mark Eades gave them both the same sentence – eight months in prison suspended for 18 months and 200 hours' unpaid community work.

The judge told them: "Wayne Pearson was on the receiving end of a good pasting – multiple bruises, abrasions and cuts.

"He didn't deserve that, he hadn't fallen out with anybody.

"Your victim was somebody you regarded as a friend."

Miss Elizabeth Power, for Gareth Turnbull, told the court: "There is no explanation for what happened, but clearly alcohol was a factor."

Mr Earl Pinnock, for Alan Turnbull said: "The dominant thought in his mind was the well-being of his brother.

"In a misconceived attempt to protect him, he picked up a stick and used it against the injured party."

Abusive driver stopped in blue badge parking spot

AS a 78-year-old genuine 'blue badge' holder, who is fitted with a pacemaker and has recently under gone hip replacement surgery, may I remind concessionaries of the essential rule governing its use?

The badge holder must ensure that the badge is displayed only when the concessions are being claimed by the person to whom it was issued.

Able bodied people must not be allowed to take advantage of the concessions and can be fined for doing so.

If you do not intend to leave the car please use a normal car park.

On a recent visit to Sainsbury's at the Cannock Orbital Centre, I signalled my intention of entering a disabled parking space.

I was cut up by a driver coming from the opposite direction, who entered the only available space.

The male and female occupants left their vehicle and strode purposefully, and unaided, to the nearby cash dispensing machines.

Upon observing my interest in their vehicle while they were using the facility, they hurriedly returned and drove off.

As the driver passed me entering the store on my walking sticks, he wound down his window and hurled abuse, while waving what appeared to be a blue badge in its holder.

Maybe I misjudged him and he is genuinely disabled – mentally!

NAME AND ADDRESS SUPPLIED

Angry residents want to have their say

SOME weeks on from the September Hednesford Community Forum I would appreciate the opportunity, through your letters page, to bring residents up to date with two developments concerning the construction of the Pye Green Distributor road.

The first update concerns the county council's drop-in sessions.

As is widely known, residents at the forum forcibly voiced their annoyance about the problems being caused by the construction works for the Pie Green Valley distributor road. Questions were also asked about the details of the project. And after a lengthy and, at times, heated discussion it was agreed that the county council would be requested to:

- Organise a meeting with residents to discuss and resolve the problems being caused by the construction work
- And arrange a display showing details of the projects.

Regrettably, the county council has chosen to ignore those two separate requests.

As a result, the county council will not be organising a meeting with residents to discuss and resolve the problems being caused by the construction works. Instead, it is are to hold just two short daytime drop in sessions.

Residents are justly angered – they want their say about the problems being caused by the construction works and their questions answered by the county council.

Therefore, through your letter page I ask, that the county council reply to the residents' request for a meeting to discuss and resolve the problems being caused by the construction works.

And in order to give residents a greater opportunity to visit the exhibition, the time of the drop in sessions is extended.

The second update concerns the footpaths/cycle ways across the valley.

Over recent weeks a number of residents have asked about the lighting of the path/cycle ways on the valley.

All have had opinions and opinions differ. I have therefore referred the matter to the planning committee.

Standard 10 metre lighting columns for the distributor road have been agreed. This is the normal requirement for roads of this type. However, no lighting has been agreed for either the footpath/cycle way, which is proposed to continue up the valley from the end of the road to Rose Hill, or the resurfaced Stanley road footpath/cycle way. It is those two matters that the planning committee will consider on November 17.

The county council is currently not proposing to light Stanley Road footpath/cycle way but would consider doing it if requested.

However, it is proposing smaller lighting columns on the footpath link from the end of the distributor road to Rose Hill. The planning committee is not required to agree to this and can take a view on whether this is appropriate or not.

If residents wish the planning committee to consider their comments on the lighting of the cycle/pathways, please write to the planning committee at Cannock Chase District. Alternatively, they can contact me and I will make sure their views are known.

Parties do work together to benefit district

I WAS surprised to read Councillor Graham Burnett's letter in The Chronicle on October 21.

He talks about wanting the various groups on Cannock Chase Council to work together.

In case he hadn't noticed we quite often do, although, naturally, we don't always agree.

Has he forgotten how Labour & the Tories voted together to reduce the Leader of the Council's excessive allowances? Or how all parties got together to support the regeneration of Hednesford?

I am very grateful to members of all parties on the Health Scrutiny Committee who have given me full support in the campaign to improve psychological support for cancer patients and their families in our area.

I am also hoping that the Conservatives will back the Labour Group on Cannock Chase Council in our plans to retain free car parking in Cannock and Rugeley in the two Saturdays before Christmas to try to give a boost to our hard pressed traders and to encourage people to shop in our towns.

Both Graham and I – and his father – have similar views about the road being built on Pye Green Valley by the County Council.

Aren't these all issues that are of concern to the residents of Cannock Chase? If we want to talk about waste, how about the £100,000 that the Conservatives & Lib Dems wasted on demolishing the Stadium against the wishes of the vast majority in Cannock and Hednesford, or the £120,000 a year we have to pay in interest on the money that they borrowed to build Rugeley swimming pool?

So, come on, Graham, we do work together for the benefit of our district and I am sure we will in the future. There is no point in trying to imply anything else.

COUNCILLOR GEORGE ADAMSON, HUNTINGTON TERRACE ROAD CANNOCK

Village shock at armed store raid

COUNCILLORS in Cheslyn Hay have spoken of their shock following an armed raid at a store.

The Co-op store in Landywood Lane was targeted by two masked raiders on October 25.

They threatened staff before making off with an undisclosed amount of cash. Now members of Cheslyn Hay Parish Council have told of their concern about the rising crime rate in the village.

Councillor Mac Harris said the incident was "very worrying".

He added: "I am very shocked following the recent armed robbery at the Co-op, but this is not the first time it has been raided.

"About 12 months ago thieves tried to make off with the cash till, but they were stopped by police.

Withdrawn

"In all, I think the store has been raided about three times.

"We certainly don't want this going on in our village. We may have low crime figures compared to other places, but it is on the rise."

The village was also hit by a spate of break-ins last month, at the same time the community's police officer was withdrawn.

There were 14 shed break-ins at allotments in one weekend, and youths forced their way into the village hall on two occasions.

Councillor Harris added: "We have lost our dedicated police officer, Pete Clarke, until possibly January. This is very worrying.

Police described the suspects as black and wearing dark clothing.

One is about 6ft and slim, while the other is 5ft 10in with a stocky build. It is believed a dark Peugeot 106 was in the area at the time.

Anyone with any information should contact DS Stuart Carter at Watling police station on 0300 1234455.

Students reach the top

Youngsters from Hagley Park Sports College during a recent climbing session

THE SKY was the limit for groups of intrepid young climbers from a Rugeley school.

Hagley Park Sports College students embarked on a series of trips to the Redpoint Climbing Centre, Birmingham, to test their climbing abilities and team work skills.

The Learning Support Unit pupils, guided by professionals from the centre, scaled the centre's walls working together in small teams and encouraging each other to the top.

The trip was funded by the Rugeley Young Peoples' Partnership, a group set up by the police, fire officers and local volunteers to improve community relations.

Enjoyed

Police have already organised trips involving go-carting and fishing and are currently running dance sessions at Rugeley Youth Centre.

Headteacher Liz Merryman said: "Our students thoroughly enjoyed the experience at Redpoint Climbing Centre.

"We are delighted with the support we have received from The Rugeley Young Peoples' Partnership which has enabled our students to participate in these exciting and testing learning experiences."

Roads to to close for work

WORK on Belt Road will close its junction with Cannock Road to Queens Street and Cannock Road and Belt Road to Stephenson Way, Cannock, on November 20, 21, 27 and 28 and December 4 and 5 (6am-8pm).

A diversion for Belt Road is via Pye Green Road, Old Fallow Road and Cannock Road.

The Cannock Road diversion is via Market Street, Victoria Street, the A460 and Stafford Lane.

Concert hits right notes

A CONCERT by members of the Townswomen's Guild in Great Wyrley has raised £800 for a local church.

The money from the concert at the Wesley Methodist Church on October 15 will go towards the restoration of the youth centre.

The church in Walsall Road has already completed a £120,000 first phase of repairs. A mini market is being held at the church on November 22 from 10.30am to 12 noon.

Willing work

TWO solicitors firms in Lichfield are taking part in Will Aid's Make a Will month. Southwell Mott in Lombard Street and Moseleys in Bore Street are inviting clients to donate to the charity appeal instead of paying a fee for drawing up basic wills this month.

Two horses about to be carted away following one of the mysterious attacks carried out on animals at Stanley's Farm, Upper Landywood, Great Wyrley, in 1903

Vicar's son George Edalji went on trial at Stafford

Bombay-born the Rev Shapurji Edalji, vicar of St Mark's, Great Wyrley, near Cannock, for 42 years, pictured with his wife Charlotte, and their children Horace, left, Maud and George Edalji

Outrages of 1903 still making the headlines

VICIOUS attacks on animals in fields at Great Wyrley more than a century ago caused a national sensation and haunted the community for generations.

Crowds of villagers took to the streets in 1903 when George Edalji, son of the vicar at St Mark's, Great Wyrley, near Cannock, was arrested for the eighth of the gruesome slayings of horses, cattle and sheep in farm fields. The animals had all been ripped open.

Before the second hearing before magistrates in Cannock, the crowd surged forward and tore off a door of the cab taking him to court. There was a fight to get into the building, with men cursing and women shrieking in frustration.

The Edalji home at St Mark's Vicarage in 1903

Edalji's trial and conviction, at Stafford Quarter Sessions, was reported in newspapers across the UK. But questions still remain over his guilt, and the great Midlands mystery preoccupies dozens of writers and historians to this day.

Roger Oldfield, a former history teacher at Great Wyrley High School, has studied the shocking events for a new book, Outrage: The Edalji Five and the Shadow of Sherlock Holmes.

He recounts how the creator of Sherlock Holmes, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, intervened in the Edalji case in 1907 and led a campaign to have him declared innocent. The sight of Sir Arthur on the trail made Edalji and Great Wyrley world-famous.Since then, dozens of writers and journalists have written about the case.

Outrage: The Edalji Five and the Shadow of Sherlock Holmes, is out now, published by Vanguard at £11.99. For more information visit www.outrage-rogeroldfield.co.uk

Conquest

In 2005, it was thrust back into the spotlight again by novelist Julian Barnes's book Arthur and George. But Mr Oldfield believes there is much more to the story than has ever been told. His research has unearthed material about the Edalji family that has never been published before.This includes the remarkable career of the Rev Shapurji Edalji, who was born a Parsi in Bombay, India, and served as Great Wyrley's vicar for 42 years.

His English wife Charlotte, was born in Ketley, Shropshire. Since the 17th century her family been involved in the conquest and looting of South Asia as the British added it to their empire.

Mr Oldfield, who now lives in Stafford, met descendants of the key players in the drama during his time in Great Wyrley.

He said: "When I started writing this book I was thinking about all my former students at Great Wyrley High School who loved to take part in investigations of the story of the Wyrley outrages and their background.

"I hope my book will provide local people with a useful record and show why we should remember the talents and trials of the remarkable Edalji family."

It's scary but that's how to celebrate facelift

Be afraid . . . Molly McElroy, aged nine, and, right, sisters Chantelle, 13, left, and Elisha, 11 get into the spirit of things

MORE than 350 people from Rugeley's Springfield estate enjoyed a Halloween party to celebrate its improvement over the summer.

Cannock Chase Council organised the Halloween Fest, which took place at Holyoake Place, with Springfields Residents' Association. There was live music, art workshops and a fancy dress competition.

The event was held to thank all the young people who helped to transform Holyoake Place into a work of art over the summer. Children worked with a professional spray artist to design and spray shop shutters and to tidy up the land to the side of the Holyoake Place shops. During half-term, children also helped design Halloween lanterns.

Janette Stevenson, chair of Springfields Residents' Association, said:

"This project over the summer transformed the Holyoake Place shops and has turned a once run-down and neglected area on the estate into a lovely community space for us all to use.

"Halloween Fest was a huge success and our local children and young people thoroughly enjoyed themselves. I would personally like to thank the young people for all their hard work and hope they will get involved in future projects."

Council environment leader, Councillor Tony Williams, said: "The summer holiday project brought the whole community together."

Go-ahead for homes estate

FINAL proposals for a housing estate in Rugeley have been given the go-ahead.

Taylor Wimpey has been given permission to build 74 houses and six flats on land to the north-east of Wolseley Road.

The developer already had outline permission for the scheme at the site, between Bower Lane and Brindley Bank Pumping Station.

At a meeting of Cannock Chase Council's planning control committee last week members gave approval for the final, detailed plans.

The application was due to be considered three weeks ago but was deferred to allow the developers to make minor changes to address the concerns of nearby residents.

The biggest alteration will see the site's three-storey block of flats relocated to the centre of the site, where it will be screened by the houses on all sides.

Committee chairman George Adamson told said: "I know people aren't particularly happy about the development anyway but I think we've lost the argument."

Concerns

But Councillor Ray Easton said he was pleased with the compromises in the revised plans. Western Springs councillor Pat Williams said she still had concerns, but went on to vote in favour of the plans.

Some residents had objected to the plans, claiming the development was too big for the land and would destroy local wildlife.

Author and screenwriter Jed Mercurio at Cradley Heath Library

Frankenstein writer has fans spellbound

A RENOWNED author and screenwriter from Cannock enchanted audiences with two fascinating library talks.

Jed Mercurio visited Cradley Heath and Stone Cross libraries in the Black Country to tell stories of his television writing career.

His TV credits include The Grimleys, Cardiac Arrest, Invasion Earth and Frankenstein, while a book penned by Mercurio – Bodies – was made into a Bafta-nominated BBC series.

During his two talks the writer revealed how he drew on his own life experiences at school, the RAF and working as a junior hospital doctor in Birmingham to help create his work.

What Katy did next is mystery to dog lovers

A HEATH HAYES couple have made a heartfelt appeal to Rugeley residents to help find their elusive dog Katy, who escaped 10 weeks ago.

Beryl and Terry Osborne took ownership of the three-year-old poodle earlier this year with a view to re-homing her for a family friend.

After a two-month search they found a possible new owner in the form of Etching Hill woman Brenda Hibbs. To the bewilderment of Brenda, Katy somehow managed to escape from her garden at Oakwood after a couple of hours and, despite the best attempts of family, friends and neighbours, the dog has not been caught.

Katy has been spotted on several occasions but avoids the clutches of anyone who gets within a few feet.

Beryl and Terry have searched night and day for the poodle, putting up posters in surrounding streets and setting dog-friendly traps.

The last of those sightings was three weeks ago and the couple are now becoming increasingly worried for her safety.

"Everyone's been , very kind but three weeks is the longest we've gone without spotting her," said Beryl.

"I've no idea why she's not coming to anyone who sees her. She's not aggressive and she doesn't seem to be scared – she's just outrunning everyone."

The couple believe that Katy may be surviving by eating at nearby stables, and most of the sightings have been on nearby Stonehouse Road.

"We don't know what else to do to be honest, it's becoming desperate now."

Beryl said that the poodle might look unrecognisable from her most recent photo as her hair would be severely overgrown.

Anyone with information is urged to call Beryl on 01543 275787 or 07801 659239.

Vitamin firm boosts work of Macmillan

A RUGELEY vitamins company has proved to be the zest of life for a national charity after helping to raise more than £25,000.

ZipVit, based on the Towers Business Park, accumulated the amount during the past two years for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Whenever one of Zipvit's customers placed an order of more than £25 they were offered a free gift, or the chance to make a £1 donation to Macmillan.

Those donations have now reached £27,136 and Janos Toth from Macmillan recently went to say thank you to the Rugeley business.

"The amount of money raised by the ZipVit is fantastic and Macmillan Cancer Support would like to thank the Company for helping people affected by cancer," Janos said.

"Macmillan Cancer Support provides medical, emotional, financial and practical support to people affected by cancer, their friends and families.

"However, we're currently only reaching one in three of those people and we want to reach everyone."

Zipvit sales manager Sarah Dinshaw said: "This is a testimony to the generosity of our million plus customers who are continuing to support Macmillan in 2010."

We love winter, it brings out Santa

YOUNGSTERS and adults in Rugeley got into the festive mood at a Winter Wonderland. The Church of the Good Shepherd pulled out all the stops to draw families to the event.

There were Christmas card stalls, gifts for sale, bric-a-brac, tombolas and cakes available.

The weekend event was held at the church building in Hislop Road, on the Pear Tree estate .

Children donned costumes to add to the atmosphere, with one youngster reminding people of how close Christmas is by dressing as Santa Claus.

Other churches in the parish of Brereton and Rugeley will also be holding festive events over coming weeks. St Augustine's Church is hosting a local charities Christmas fair on November 20 from 10am to 2pm.

St Michael of All Angels has a quiz on the same day at 7.30pm with the entry fee £5 for teams of four. There will also be a Christmas market in Brereton and Ravenhill Parish Hall on November 27 running from noon to 3pm.

Hundreds in consultation over budget

ALMOST 500 people across Cannock Chase took part in the first stage of the district council's consultation over its next budget.

Cannock Chase Council chiefs invited people's views on which services they thought were most important. The move comes ahead of their decisions due to be made on the budget for next year.

In total, 493 people completed the survey questionnaire.

It featured in residents' magazine Chase Matters, on the council's website, and four roadshows across the district.

The survey asked which services were most important to them, and refuse collection and recycling came out on top, with street cleaning second.

Inform

Tackling fly tipping ranked third and working with the police and other partners to tackle crime was fourth.

Carrying out food safety inspections was rated fifth with providing parks and green spaces in last place.

The results of the consultation will now help to inform councillors' decisions as a budget for 2011/12 is set.

A provisional budget for 2011 to 2014 is due to be agreed by full council at a meeting on Wednesday, December 8 and a further consultation will be held in the new year.

Councillor Chris Collis, corporate improvement leader, said: "This was one of the biggest consultations with local residents that we've carried out. The reduction in support from the Government means that some difficult decisions will have to be taken, so it is vitally important that we hear the views of local people."

Survey results are on the www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk website.

Donors handed rewards

DONORS in Cannock and Lichfield have been praised by the National Blood Service for reaching personal milestones.

Seven Cannock and two Lichfield residents were rewarded at a ceremony in Walsall.

Peter Higgins, Kenneth Westbury and Joyce Stewardson all received a decanter for donating 100 times. Stephen Bishop, Kevin Goodson, Geoffrey Allsop and Anne King all reached 75 donations and received crystal plates.

Reaching the same landmark were James Langston and Christopher Sandall from Lichfield.

Action call by MP on cheap alcohol

CHASE MP Aidan Burley is calling for action to stop supermarkets selling alcohol at knockdown prices.

The Conservative MP believes the "unfair competition" is hitting local pubs and leading to closures of many good community inns. Mr Burley spent two hours behind the bar at the Mill Farm pub last Friday (November 5) to support British Pub Week.

"I am a big supporter of pubs. They are a very important part of the local community," he said.

"Sadly they are closing at an alarming rate. The issues of discount selling in supermarkets and the smoking ban have hit the ability of many to stay open," he added.

Mr Burley said he had worked in a pub when he was 18, but Friday was the first time he had pulled a pint in 12 years.

"It was a chance to talk to people in the licensing trade including those who work behind the bar," he said. "It was interesting to hear how pubs have changed in recent years with more people using them for eating out.

"They are an important part of the local economy in providing jobs and entertainment.

"It is sad to see so many empty pubs especially some of the older ones. Those that are going to survive need to adapt."

Mr Burley said the Government was looking at ways to stop supermarkets selling cheaper alcohol. He said: "I will be feeding my experience in the study being done at the House of Commons."

An M&B spokesman said: "Aidan said he hadn't pulled a pint since he worked in a pub as a student — but he was very professional."

Managers of M&B pubs have called on MPs to support the Parliamentary motion from Andrew Griffiths to support a ban on discounted alcohol sales to curb cheap store deals.

Fancy dress day aids Momentum

CHILDREN donned fancy costumes for a dressing up day in aid of charity.

Cash from the event at Smiley Faces Day Nursery, in Bourne Methodist Church, Heath Hayes, will go to the charity Momentum, which runs brain injury rehabilitation centres.

Michelle Hawkins, deputy manager of the nursery, which caters for two-to-four-year-olds, said: "The parents got involved as well, helping their children come up with ideas for a costume."

Shush! Library rocks to the sounds of young musicians

YOUNG rock bands spent a weekend rocking Cannock Library to its foundations as part of a drive to get more children and teenagers reading.

The library, in Manor Avenue, hosted a free rock music workshop as part of last month's Family Learning Festival.

Lisa Dyke, an ICT team leader at the library, said the day was all about encouraging youngsters to visit libraries.

She said: "It's about trying to get young people back into libraries, especially young lads.

"It's been great to see them all here."

Two bands – Some Happy Ending and Your Sweet Defiance – treated library staff and a young audience to two live sets on October 30.

County councillor and cabinet member for community health, Pat Corfield, said: "This event is a great for young people to come to and get involved in what today's library service has to offer."

Ellie Szarowski, Stacey Heydon, Jess Sheedy, Hannah Robottom, and at the front Brad Ransome, of Your Sweet Defiance, who performed at Cannock Library

Contempt warning over no-show boss

CONTEMPT of court action may be taken against the boss of a Norton Canes welding firm after he failed to give evidence at an employment tribunal.

Andrew Smith had been head of Laser Weld 2000 of Walsall Road which is now in liquidation.

He had been ordered to attend the hearing in Birmingham involving a compen-sation claim for redundancy by Brian Chatting against the Government's Department for Business.

Mr Chatting, aged 39, of Prospect Village, Rawnsley, said it was a family business and he had been involved for most of his life.

He said the business had changed names and he had been a director and an operations manager.

Mr Chatting said he was made redundant and is claiming redundancy pay for 18 years' continuous service. But Alan Baines, representing the Department for Business, said Mr Chatting's employment had not been continuous.

Mr Baines said Mr Smith had said Mr Chatting's service was continuous but had failed to attend the hearing.

Tribunal judge Paul Swann said Mr Smith had said he was too busy with administrators.

But he gave Mr Chatting permission to go ahead with his claim for redundancy, after accepting he had the 18 years' continuous service.

But Mr Swann warned that Mr Smith could face contempt of court action.

Old folk enjoy Tai Chi sessions

RESIDENTS at a Great Wyrley care home have been enjoying a spot of exercise with a difference.

Waters Edge Care Home, Stafford Road, has been holding regular Tai Chi sessions based around slow, controlled movements to help develop strength, balance, posture, and calm.

They were led by Jacqui Fisher, an instructor in the ancient Chinese craft. The home, which is owned by Alpha Care Homes, regularly holds activities to help brighten up the residents' days.

Activities co-ordinator Jenny Cowley said: "They really benefited from these sessions – they found them very enjoyable. They learned breathing techniques and movements."

Trust team in clean-up at church

PRINCE'S Trust volunteers spent a day helping a Hednesford church.

The dozen members of the Prince's Trust team 246 were at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Uxbridge Street, last Thursday (November 4).

Press officer Samantha Hall said the team, which had started its 12-week course on the Monday of the same week, had worked with the priest at the church to plan a day clearing up the back of the churchyard.

The community project involved clearing a large area of bracken and tending graves that had become overgrown.

The team also laid gravel around some of the graves to stop weeds growing back.

"Cannock Chase Council had agreed to take over the maintenance one the initial work to sort out the problems had been done," said Samantha.

The personal development programme for young people aged 16 to 25 runs until the end of January.

The team, which is based at High Green Court in Cannock town centre, also has to undertake a two-week community project in the area.

Crimewatch slot for murder probe

THE hunt for the killers of a Burntwood businessman is to feature on BBC's Crimewatch on December 14.

Richard Deakin, who ran Walsall firm On Time Skip Hire, was shot in bed at the home he shared with partner Megan and their two children in Meadway Street, Chasetown, on July 5.

Neighbours spoke of seeing two masked men vault a wall and enter the property before speeding off in a black Vauxhall Corsa.

The getaway car was later found abandoned in Coppy Nook Lane, Hammerwich, but the shotgun used has never been discovered.

Arrested

A post mortem revealed the 27-year-old former Cheslyn Hay High School pupil died from a gunshot wound to the chest.

Two men, aged 22 or 23, from the Bilston area, were arrested in connection with Mr Deakin's murder in July, and released on police bail.

Detectives have since spoken of their disappointment about the lack of people coming forward with information.

Police have previously dismissed rumours Mr Deakin was gunned down because he was a police informant.

Anyone with information should call police on 0300 1234455 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Deck the market halls with holly

COME and enjoy Christmas shopping at Cannock Market, Prince of Wales Market and Rugeley Market.

With a wide range of stalls and trades on offer, from the traditional to the more unique, shoppers will be surprised at what they can find.

One thing's for sure – they're bound to find bargains and lots of special gifts for Christmas.

The hustle and bustle of a traditional market at Christmas time is hard to beat– there's always a really special atmosphere. And, Cannock and Rugeley have been holding markets since the 13th century, when the original Royal Charter was first issued. All these centuries later, the markets are still going strong, offering a unique shopping experience.

Tombola

The markets in Cannock and Rugeley will be holding lots of events in the run-up to the festive period. Cannock will be holding a free raffle to win a luxury festive hamper, a tombola and bric-a-brac stall, all to raise funds for Guide Dogs for the Blind, this year's chosen charity for Cannock market traders.

Rugeley will be having a visit from Father Christmas and will also be holding a pensioners' Christmas party, following the success of this event last year.

Events will also take place to raise money for Help the Heroes, this year's chosen charity for Rugeley market traders.

Take advantage of the specialist knowledge and service available from traders who pride themselves on their customer service and often have years, if not decades, of experience.

For full information on events and Christmas and New Year opening times, visit your local market or log on to the website www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/markets

A very merry Christmas and a happy new year from everyone at Cannock Market, the Prince of Wales and Rugeley Markets.

Staffordshire Christmas

Move on up to the best of the season

THIS Christmas promises to be a special one for Cannock residents as the magic of Disney is sprinkled over the town.

The Disney Christmas event begins on Friday, November 19, from 4pm until 7.30pm and will be opened by the carnival queen, dressed as Snow White.

During the event, which has something for the whole family, there will be a children's funfair all day and, from 4pm, there will be performances from local bands, a hot air balloon as seen in the hugely popular Disney movie, Up, along with church choirs and mince pies at St Lukes to get everyone into the festive spirit.

Magnificent

Santa will be making his grand appearance from 6pm until 7.30pm.

There will also be face painting, stilt walking, fire eaters and a magnificent fireworks display to end the evening.

During the day there will be additional traders along Market Hall Street and to continue the theme of some of the world's best loved animations, shops will be asked to dress themselves and their windows in a Disney theme.

There are many more events and attractions to be confirmed.

Visit www.cannock-shopping.co.uk for updates on what promises to be a truly enchanted yuletide in Cannock.

It's a pantomime 'eggstrava-gander'

STAFFORD'S Gatehouse Theatre will be celebrating the festive season in fine style with the launch of firm family favourite, Mother Goose.

This year's panto promises a real 'eggstrava-gander' in the shape of golden eggs, foot-tapping tunes, dazzling dance routines, stunning sets, lavish costumes, real snow and a multi-talented cast of professional actors.

Running from Wednesday, December 15, to Sunday, January 9 2011, the audience is invited to follow Mother Goose as she hits the jackpot and is given Priscilla, a goose that lays golden eggs.

But after being tricked into selling her prized golden goose, Mother Goose must save Priscilla from the clutches of the Demon of Discontent with only the help of her son Billy and Fairy Feathers.

Mother Goose follows hot on the heels of last year's critically acclaimed Cinderella, with both productions being penned by accomplished scriptwriter and Coronation Street actor Eric Potts.

Back by popular demand is Toby Walton, who not only directed last year's panto but starred as Buttons. Also returning is local girl and professional choreographer Verity Bray who will be playing the role of Priscilla the Goose, providing the glittering dance routines and leading the Gatehouse Dancers.

Fronting the theatre's six-piece band is musical director Malcolm Newton, who's worked for the RSC and National Theatre and is supported by musical supervisor Tim Farmer, now working on his 12th Gatehouse pantomime.

Tickets for Mother Goose are on sale now starting at £16.50 (adults) and £13 (concessions - children, students, over 60s and the unemployed) from The Gatehouse box office on 01785 254 653 or visit www.staffordgatehousetheatre.co.uk

Is Cinderella coming to Cannock? Oh yes she is . . .

WILL Cinderella get to the ball and meet her Prince Charming? Well, the only way to find out is to make sure you don't miss this years panto at the Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock.

Cinderella is, without a doubt, the premier panto title and, starring in this years show, is Nick Cochrane as Prince Charming.

Nick, who is better known as Andy McDonald from Coronation Street, can't wait to woo the beautiful Cinders in Cannock this Christmas.

Starring alongside is another star from the soaps, Mark Homer, who will lead the laughter as Buttons. Mark, who played Tony Hills in EastEnders, is no stranger to panto at the Prince of Wales, having starred there twice previously.

Cinderella runs from Friday, December 24 until Friday, December 31. Tickets are on sale now from the Prince of Wales box office on 01543 578762.

There's no humbug in Hednesford this winter

Everyone is invited to this hugely popular, free event

THE ANNUAL Christmas event in Hednesford town centre takes place on Friday, December 3, when the festive lights are turned on.

As usual, local schools and organisations will be providing entertainment, with all the favourite Christmas carols and popular songs to sing along to.

The area around Anglesey Square and Market Street will be closed to traffic for the evening and this is where charity stalls will be setting up selling local crafts.

Many shops will be staying open late so people can purchase those special seasonal gifts. For many, the evening's highlight will be the arrival of Santa, who will have sweet treats for children.

Chairman of Hednesford Town Council, Alan Pearson says: "The council has put a lot of effort in to organising this year's event and we hope it is going to be a great success. Everyone is invited to come along to this wonderful community event where they are sure to have a great time."

Anyone interested in supporting or participating in the event should contact the town council on 01543 424872.

Rugeley is ringing out

Attractions taking place in Rugeley include the annual panto

TO CELEBRATE Christmas this year, the Rugeley town council has launched its festivities by announcing a school's Christmas card competition and, of course, the annual pantomine at the Rugeley Rose Community Hall and Theatre.

This year, Rowlands Roses will be performing "Jack and the beanstalk."

There are two matinee performances on December 14 and 15, an evening performance on Friday, December 17 and a further matinee on Saturday, December 18. Call 01889 584036 for more information.

On Friday, December 3, Rugeley Traders' Association will be lighting up the town with the Christmas festival, something previously organised by the town council.

Cllr christine woodward says: "The town council applauds the Traders' Association for its initiative and looks forward to what should be a wonderful festival occasion for Rugeley."

For more information on this year's festivities, contact Mike Brazier on 07966 453338, Chris Green on 07713 485925 or Angi Cooney on 07866610894.

Get hooked on Bradley for a wide range of festive gifts

There will be traditional Christmas displays, a Peter Pan-themed wonderland and large group visits are catered for with special menus

THOUGHTS turn to winter and Christmas shopping as the nights start to draw in and staff at one local garden centre will be celebrating with a Peter Pan-themed wonderland.

Bradley Nurseries' Christmas display is now open with a pirate ship, a skull cave, Wendy and Peter and even a selection of woodland fairies. The huge range of Christmas decorations on show is sure to draw big crowds.

With plenty of inspiration for the home, there's a choice of modern decorations, unusual gifts and colour-themed displays of lights and trees at the busy centre that offers a varied range of plants, gifts, sundries and furniture. There is even a restaurant, pet shop, water garden supplies and much more.

Inspiration

Managing director, Mark Earp, has developed the centre in the last six years along with manager Dave Winfield and his loyal team who are preparing for Santa's arrival on November 13 at 12pm. His grotto will be open every weekend up to Christmas and December 20 and 21.

Visit the online garden centre at www.GreatGardensOnline.com for a further range of products, including benches and loveseats, which make popular presents.

There are also everyday items such as plants, tools, bird tables, chimeneas, furniture covers, propagators, garden lights and tools. A free £250 prize draw can also be entered from now until December 21.

For large parties such as WI groups and garden clubs, special menus can be arranged. Contact Jackie Regan on 01785 780208 to book and discuss refreshment options.

There will also be a special Christmas menu available from December 3-24 with two courses starting at £10.75.

No yuletide dining table is complete without being suitably decorated for the season

Shining new light on stately home

Hundrreds of bright candles light up the mansion

VISITORS to Shugborough's famous candlelit Christmas evenings will be wowed by a flower-filled mansion bathed in the light of hundreds of candles.

People who visit during the four evenings from December 1-4 will be treated to a breath-taking experience of stately splendour, traditional entertainment and festive crafts, gifts and fine foods.

The home of the late Patrick Lichfield draws thousands of admirers from across the country every year and it's the only time visitors can see the enormous 300-year-old cut glass chandelier in the red drawing room candlelit. It's also a perfect opportunity to admire the fine dining room table filled with festive fare and laid with the striking family silver.

The library is also festooned with festive foliage, creating beautiful, traditional scene and costumed characters work in the bustling servants' quarters, giving visitors a glimpse life below stairs.

Magic

The true magic of Christmas comes alive on each of the four evenings, as the candlelit and decorated buildings are complemented by brass bands, choirs, entertainers, snow showers, Father Christmas and a large craft and gift marquee filled with stallholders.

The evenings will be open from 5-9pm from December 1-4.

Visit www.shugborough.org.uk to find out more and to book discounted tickets online.

Staffordshire Christmas

Stafford is the perfect destination for festive shopping, with shops galore including specialist and high street names

Season's best in an historic town

AT this magical time of year there is no better place to visit than this beautiful county town.

Stafford comes alive with the spirit of Christmas, with twinkling festive lights, Santa's parade and a spectacular fireworks show all happening on Saturday, November 20.

The town is the perfect destination for Christmas shopping, with shops galore both large and small. Walk around the cobbled lanes and explore the unique, specialist shops, where you're sure to find that special yuletide gift. Browse the many shops in the Guildhall Shopping Centre and wander down the high street, where you will find major stores such as Marks & Spencers, Boots and The Stafford Co-op department store. Break for coffee at one of the many delightful coffee shops.

Stafford Indoor Market is always worth a visit too, with many stalls all under one roof. It's open daily from December 2-24, including Sundays.

The festive Victorian market takes place in the Market Square on Saturday, November 27, followed by the popular Italian market, which makes a return visit from December 3-5.

An event not to miss is the Christmas tree festival in St Mary's Church from December 1-7.

Stafford also has many eateries, whether shoppers are looking for that traditional home cooked lunch or a special restaurant with a mouth-watering selection.

On Saturdays during December visitors will find lots going on in the Guildhall Shopping Centre to entertain them, including a special appearance by Bjorn the polar bear and his handler Ursula on December 11.

For a helping hand with Christmas shopping, the Stafford Town Centre Enjoy Card enables people to take advantage of the savings and discounts available at many shops and restaurants.

For more information about what's going on for the festive season and a full directory of shops and businesses visit www.stafford-towncentre.co.uk

Just the tonic for a healthier new year

IT'S the party season. A time to eat, drink and be merry, with plenty of rich food, cocktails and late nights.

But, come the New Year, many people come back down to earth with a bump, feeling sluggish and looking decidedly worse for wear.

Skin breakouts, dark circles and weight gain are almost inevitable by-products of the season of goodwill.

So, this year, why not encourage your loved ones to extend this feeling of goodwill to their bodies, with a pampering voucher from one of Cannock's leading day spas?

At Tonic Day Spa in Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes, women and men can choose from a huge range of treatments for the body beautiful.

The dedicated team of fully qualified therapists can soon get customers looking their very best

Qualified

Owner Julia Ball has more than 20 years' experience in the beauty industry and, together with her dedicated team of fully qualified therapists, can ensure that customers will soon be back to looking and feeling their best.

Tonic treatments cover all areas, from facials and anti-ageing through to body bronzing. Customers can even get an on-trend haircut from resident stylist Matthew.

But, the treatments on offer at Tonic Day Spa are not just about looking good on the surface.

Diet evaluation and allergy testing are just some of the ways in which Julie and her team can get people feeling fine, inside and out.

And, when the stresses of the festive season get too much, there's nothing more soothing than a massage to face the world anew.

While many customers will be familiar with traditional massage techniques, at Tonic the team like to do things a little differently.

Julie explains: "Anyone who enjoys massage should try this - it's a must have! Naud Bo-Ram is the unique traditional massage of Thailand.

"It consists of sen energy line work and stretching, which can help with increasing flexibility, releasing tension and helping the body's natural energy flow more easily. Or, try an Oriental hot stone relaxing massage, where you lie on a bed of hot stones while being massaged with these healing and energetic stones. This wonderful therapy will melt your body and soothe your mind, leaving you totally relaxed."

Treatment

Of course, no new year's resolution list would be complete without a detox and Julie and her team have the solution.

She says: "This treatment begins with positive ion technology to stimulate detoxification, followed by a dry body brush and exfoliaton to prepare the skin.

"Next, a detoxifying seaweed and mineral poltice is applied, followed by a lymphatic or anti-cellulite massage.

"Your treatment is completed with the application of a cooling, therapeutic balm to stimulate circulation and improve skin texture."

Monthly special offers are available throughout the year and pamper vouchers can be obtained by popping into the branch or ordering over the telephone.

Call 01543 450 799 or visit www.tonic-dayspa.co.uk for details.

Try a Naud Bo-Ram traditional Thai massage to give increased flexibility and ease tension

A pamper voucher would make an ideal gift for friends and family this festive season

Staffordshire Christmas

Shiny disco bells for party season

Both clubs have a variety of great nights and packages available for private hire parties

TWO of Stafford's hottest clubs are gearing up for what promises to be an exciting Christmas and new year.

Couture and Noir-et-blanc on Newport Road have a variety of packages available for hosting Christmas parties, from traditional sit down meals, buffets, discos and after-dinner parties.

From a private booth to the whole venue, daytime and evening hire are available throughout December and January.

Delicious food is supplied by Redlemon catering and different menu packages are available.

In addition to festive packages, the venue is playing host to a variety of top DJs, acts and PAs. Mr Hudson will be appearing on Friday, November 12 , Tinchy Stryder on November 26 and Professor Green on Friday, December 17 to name but a few.

The venue will also be celebrating its first birthday on the weekend of November 26 and 27 and this promises to be a big event in itself.

The club operates four nights per week. Tuesday is Jelly-Baby, a student night, Thursday is 99p night, Friday plays host to top acts and Saturdays are the destination of choice for the glamorous and trend setting people of the area.

In addition, Noir-et-blanc trades as an over-25s venue on Friday and Saturday and people can pre-book booths for the weekend nights.

EVERYONE at Vidal Lounge would like to wish all its customers a happy and safe Christmas and a healthy and prosperous new year.

In its first few weeks of trading, staff at the club have been overwhelmed by the amount of support they have received and hope that this trend will continue.

Throughout this festive period, Vidal Lounge will be offering large discounts on champagne and selected spirits and is currently planning its Christmas and new year parties.

The club is open until 2am on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and is available for Christmas and birthday celebrations. Vidal Lounge offers a bespoke and relaxed atmosphere for over-25s to enjoy, day or night.

Spice up the season with excellent taste

WITH a passion for Indian food spanning more than three decades, this award-winning restaurant brings the authentic tastes, aromas and magnificent colours of this continent's cuisine to the heart of Cannock.

And now, with a stylish newly refurbished interior, dining here is even more of a exciting Eastern experience.

Owner Tony and his team are dedicated to excellence in every area, from the kitchen itself right through to serving customers at the table.

Friends and families can dine out in magnificent Eastern style this festive season at this award-winning restaurant

Accolades

Maybe this is why The Dilshad continues to pick up accolades year after year, most recently the Chef of the Year award 2010, presented by the Midlands Curry Award.

Tony says: "Our numerous achievements and awards are an example that The Dilshad will never lose its appetite and strive for more success. We employ some of the best chefs in our kitchens, creating dishes unrivalled in quality and with tastes to trigger those taste buds!"

And this festive season, Tony and his team are putting some spice into seasonal fayre, with their delicious Christmas menu, for which bookings are currently being taken. Diners can choose from a sumptuous Indian banquet, starting with a glass of chilled sherry, wine of fruit juice, followed by an appetiser of onion bhaji, panneer chilli or chicken tikka.

For the main course, experience the perfectly balanced flavours of a tandoori murgh masalla, or chef's special masalla, accompanied by fragrant basmati rice.

Finish with a coffee or a refreshing serving of kulfi, a traditional Indian ice cream, with a choice of pistachio or mango.

Those with a more traditional palate can choose from vegetable soup or prawn cocktail. For a main course, tuck into a traditional roast turkey with all the trimmings, followed by moist, rich Christmas pudding or coffee.

Cost for each of these special seasonal menus is £24.95 for adults or £12.95 for children. Call 01543 570 264/466 587 or see www.thedilshad.co.uk for more information.

This year, diners can choose from a delicious traditional Indian or English set menu

Staffordshire Christmas

Follow the spice trail this winter

Friendly staff are on hand to help customers decide upon a perfect meal

THIS festive season, get tastebuds tingling with award-winning tandoori cuisine from one of Stafford's most popular eateries.

Spice Island offers a selection of mouth-watering dishes freshly made to order and served by friendly, experienced staff.

Nothing is pre-cooked and some dishes are even prepared in front of customers.

Owner Najuk Ahmed says: "With competition for custom, it is our aim to give our diners a great night out with food served at its best."

A buy-one-get-one-free special offer on all main meals from Sunday to Thursday gives customers old and new the chance to experience authentic Indian cuisine.

This family-run restaurant is situated close to Stafford town centre, on the Wolverhampton Road, and is open seven days a week.

Telephone 01785 222858 for further details.

A Christmas cardamom

WITH a number of similar establishments in a short stretch of road, competition is tough for Indian restaurants in this part of Cannock.

However, the Elaichi has ridden the storm, with even the recession failing to make a serious dent on the business.

And this festive season is shaping up to be another success for owner Owner Akhtar Miah and his team, who pride themselves on delivering a first-class service on time, every time. He says: "We serve good food and know that if customers like it, they will come back and they will tell their friends," he says. "We rely on their feedback and on word getting around."

Refreshing

Set up more than two and half years ago at Ashworth House, in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, the Elaichi has built up a reputation as a fine food outlet.

For a truly different taste experience, seafood lovers will adore mussels served Bengali style, with garlic, methi leaves, cream and butter. Classic accompaniments such as keema naan and pilau rice are naturally available, although Akhtar and his team like to add a refreshing twist to staples, featuring sides such as lemon and chili rice or mushroom naan.

Like many Indian restaurants, the Elaichi is unlicensed, so diners are asked to bring in their own alcoholic drinks.

Call 01543 467985 or visit http://theelaichi.net for more information.

Gwyneth unfurls her latest concert

ACCLAIMED jazz vocalist Gwyneth Herbert is sure to wow the crowds during a rare performance in Lichfield this weekend.

Back by popular demand, the critically lauded Herbert, pictured right, will take to the Lichfield Guildhall stage for the first time in two years.

Drawing on a wide range of influences including Rufus Wainwright and Joni Mitchell, the English singer has had her voice described as a knowing mix of honey, steel and gravel.

Her 2009 album All the Ghosts was given rave reviews, labelled as 'beautifully observed vignettes about outsider women'.

In just the last few months Herbert has performed at the Rochester Jazz Festival in New York, where her show was in the top 10 out of more than 200) and appeared at Wilton's Music Hall alongside Sian Phillips and Marc Almond.

Herbert also recently composed and performed a specially commissioned soundtrack to silent film The Patsy at the British Film Institute.

Simply brilliant

Latest single Perfect Fit has been released ahead of new album Clangers & Mash, a mini LP which draws on the many sides of her musical world, from stripped-back ukulele strums through recent classics to dark-hearted remixes that present her work in a brand new light.

Lichfield Arts Director Brian Pretty said the singer was simply brilliant.

"She has a sound and style that draws on past styles and traditions, but with a need to embrace the future. Don't take my word for it just come and see her live in the wonderful surroundings of the Guildhall."

Gwyneth Herbert will be at the Lichfield Guildhall on Saturday (13) with the show starting at 8pm.

Tickets are priced at £14 for adults, £13 concessions, £12 members and £7 students.

Spell-binding Celtic band who redefine Irish music

IRISH eyes will be smiling when a celebrated Celtic band make a welcome return to Lichfield later this month.

Lunasa, whose back catalogue includes several critically acclaimed albums, recently celebrated 10 years together and will play the Lichfield Guildhall on Sunday, November 21.

The band comprises some of Ireland's finest musicians including bassist Trevor Hutchinson, guitar player Pat Meehan, fiddle player Sean Smyth, Kevin Crawford on flutes and Cillian Vallely on Uilleann pipes.

Members have individually worked with a whole host of traditional Irish musicians such as The Waterboys and award-winning accordion player Sharon Shannon.

Lichfield Arts Director Brian Pretty said he very much looking forward to hosting Lunasa in the city.

"They are a spell-binding band," he said.

"What attracts audiences is their inventive arrangements and bass driven grooves which get to the pulse of Irish music, but at the same time redefines its wonderful rhythms without losing any of its freshness.

"Last year they sold out, so if you would like to enjoy a night of fine music in the company of some of the best musicians, this is the concert for you."

Tickets for Lunasa are priced at £16 for adults, £15 concessions and £8 students.

To book log on to www.lichfieldarts.org.uk, call 01543 262223 or visit the Lichfield Arts box office at Donegal House, Bore Street.

28 October 2010

The Royal British Legion's 90th Poppy Appeal has been launched today, Thursday 28 October, highlighting its support for the injured, wounded and bereaved of the British Armed Forces serving in Afghanistan.

Under the motto, "Put on a poppy", the national Poppy Appeal was launched at Colchester Garrison with a concert from chart-topping pop sensations The Saturdays for families and personnel of 16 Air Assault Brigade, now on combat operations in Afghanistan.

The 2010 Appeal has a fundraising target of £36m, up from the record £35m raised in 2009. "Despite the current economic times, we trust the great British public will show their support for those who have sacrificed on behalf of their country," said the Legion's Director of National Events and Fundraising Russell Thompson. "We call on the nation to give generously and to wear their poppies with pride."

Jump 4 Heroes, The Royal British Legion's Extreme Human Flight Team, provided a spectacular display of wingsuit flight and precision guidance under red and white poppy canopies. Team Captain Major Alastair Macartney said: "As serving soldiers, we know all too well how important the Poppy Appeal is for the support of today's Armed Forces and we are very proud to be a part of it."

Emma-Jayne Webster, the fiancée of a young soldier who was killed in Afghanistan last year, and Gunner Mark Stonelake, a soldier who lost a leg fighting in Afghanistan, also attended the launch. Both feature on this year's Poppy Appeal posters at more than 6,000 locations across the UK and on national television ads.

Colchester Garrison is future home to one of four Personnel Recovery Centres that The Royal British Legion will be operating in partnership with the British Army. The Legion will also build, equip and operate the Battle Back Challenge Centre for adventure training and adaptive sports. Both projects will cost the Legion at least £25m, "and we are confident the British public will support this important work enough to provide us the means to provide for our injured heroes," said Mr Russell.

With the assistance of British Forces Broadcasting, the Poppy Appeal launch also arranged for video messages from soldiers serving with 16 Air Assault Brigade to be relayed to some 800 family members watching from inside the Cpl Budd VC Gymnasium at Colchester Garrison in Essex.

Essex-born member of The Saturdays, Frankie Sandford said: "It's great to be back in Essex performing for the families living at Colchester Garrison. I really admire and respect our Armed Forces and their families, I think what they do is incredible."

Rochelle Wiseman, another Essex-born member of the group, added: "It's humbling to be asked to help launch this year's Poppy Appeal. We will do anything we can do to support the Poppy Appeal and our brave Armed Forces and their families."

"The Royal British Legion is the leading UK charity providing direct, practical support to the British Armed Forces heroes and their families," said Legion National President, Lieutenant General Sir John Kiszely KCB MC. "The past nine years of conflict have increased the need for our help, both today and for years to come."

The Legion has provided immediate financial help to more than 10,000 Service personnel who have served in Iraq and Afghanistan and their families. "We represent one-third of all the appeals for higher compensation payments for injuries suffered in Afghanistan," Lt Gen Sir John Kiszely added. "And our campaigns have led to increased compensation awards which have placed an extra £12 million in the pockets of the most seriously injured."

The Legion currently spends more than a £1.4 million a week or over £200,000 a day in its work helping 160,000 members of the Armed Forces Family each year. Its help is available to all those in the Armed Forces, all who have served in the past, and their dependents.

There are many ways to support The Poppy Appeal either individually or as a company. And now you can show your support digitally - by email, on your mobile and on Facebook.

Jarrod (Eric Balfour) and Elaine (Scottie Thompson) make a run for it

Fight for survival in alien onslaught

CINEMA

AFTER a late night party, a group of friends in Los Angeles are awakened in the dead of the night by an eerie light beaming through the window.

Like moths to a flame, the light source is drawing people outside before they suddenly vanish into thin air. That's the set up for apocalyptic new science fiction thriller Skyline, which opens at cinemas tomorrow (Fri), a special effects bonanza blending elements of Cloverfield, The Mist, War of the Worlds, Independence Day and Close Encounters.

The friends soon find themselves in a fight for survival as the world unravels around them in a terrifying alien onslaught.

Eric Balfour (from 24) stars alongside David Zayas (Dexter), with Donald Faison (Scrubs), Brittany Daniel (Sweet Valley High) and Neil Hopkins (Lost). Skyline is directed by brothers Colin Strause and Greg Strause, written by Liam O'Donnell and Joshua Cordes .

In the film strange lights descend on the city of Los Angeles

Still magic after all these years

Disney On Ice 100 Years of Magic, NIA

It is 108 years since Walt Disney was born and next week it will be 72 years since Mickey Mouse made his movie debut... so I can only assume that the 100 Years of Magic is part of a decade-long celebration of the studio's movie magic. Whatever the theme, the latest Disney ice spectacular does live up to the hyperbole - it is a visual treat full of colourful costumed characters and featuring thrilling skating.

Mickey and Minnie Mouse, with some help from the accident-prone Goofy, introduce a cavalcade of favourite Disney songs and moments. It begins in eye-catching style with the Genie from Aladdin duplicating himself into a fast skating chorus line of 20 blue genies. Then a Finding Nemo segment brings back some of the surreal fish costumes, including a menacingly toothy Bruce the Shark, that delighted Disney ice show regulars last year.

The castle set came into its own for a Beauty and the Beast excerpt which became a tribute to the Disney princesses as Belle and her Prince were joined on the ice by Cinderella and Prince Charming, Princess Jasmine and Aladdin, Ariel and Prince Eric, Pocahontas and John Smith, and finally Snow White and her Prince for a series of superbly danced duets.

A big cheer greeted the arrival of Woody, Jessie and Buzz Lightyear, joined by the toy soldiers of Toy Story before the first half ended in dazzling style with a tribute to a favourite Disney theme parks institution It's A Small World.

The anarchic Stitch sadly made an all-too-brief appearance after the interval but then the audience were treated to a tribute to old school classic Pinocchio, probably the most magical portion of the show when Jiminy Cricket croons When You Wish Upon A Star as the fairy descends from her star to turn the puppet into an 'almost real' boy. After being led astray Pinocchio made amends by rescuing his father from the belly of the giant whale Monstro.

The whale was good but the dragon was better in the fast-paced potted version of Mulan, in which snow fell onto the rink as Mulan's Chinese troops battled the Huns. The Incredibles showed their super powers before the most popular part of the show, The Lion King with Hankuma Matata and the gorgeously costumed Simba and Nala dancing to Can You Feel The Love Tonight?

You could certainly feel the love for the whole Disney experience as the huge cast returned for a big firework finale. Disney On Ice continues to celebrate the magic at the NIA to Sunday, November 14.

Seasons Of My Soul: Rumer

What a very special voice. Rumer (seen right) has been compared to Karen Carpenter and Laura Nyro and her soft, yet sturdy, tones deserve to be mentioned in such legendary company.

Slow, the third and finest song on this debut album, is the perfect showcase. It is gorgeous and will be a huge hit. This is a warm album that feels as though it has been written from experience rather than by committee. It is an engaging set of songs from the 31-year-old singer/songwriter (real name Sarah Joyce, her stage name is a tribute to children's author Rumer Godden).

Whilst none quite match the wonderful Slow, which featured on an EP which introduced this singer who comes from Pakistan by way of the New Forest, they deserve time to work their way under the skin – particularly the laid-back dreamy Come To Me High, the spine-tingling On My Way Home and the Norah Jones-ish Aretha.

Rumer is to appear in concert at Birmingham's Glee Club on December 13. Given the release of this album, her appearances with Jools Holland and on Elton John's Electric Prom... it's likely to be the hottest ticket in town this festive season.

The Wanted: The Wanted

Watch out JLS this five-piece (Jay, Nathan, Tom, Siva and Max) are impressive new kids on the block. The Wanted's debut album opens with a cracking pop song, All Time Low, which bounces off the album and into your brain, where it will stay.

Heart Vacancy is more of a standard ballad with its harmonies and boys together chorus and High and Low is almost choral. However, it remains apparent that these lads are a million miles away from the 'stand-up-for-the-key-change' school of dewy-eyed balladry.

The Wanted live up to their promise to bring sexy back to boy bandism with come on song Let's Get Ugly which cheekily uses the famous refrain from Ennio Morricone's western movie theme The Good The Bad and The Ugly. Say It On The Radio is a rocker whilst Golden is an interestingly strange almost-indie rock song. The emphasis is back on the dancefloor for Weakness before the double salvo of potential hits, Behind Bars and Made. A lot of people are going to want The Wanted.

Carpets Direct 2U has established a reputation for providing customers with good service and quality floor coverings, priced to suit everyone's pocket.

Great Value, Great Quality

So how do they do it? Generally, when buying a carpet to fit your room, this price will include other costs such as storage and distribution by the stockist.

Carpets Direct 2U buy and sell in a different way. In simple terms they buy full rolls of carpet in bulk direct from the supplier, then cut them into standard room sizes and hold the stock themselves. The savings they make are then passed Direct 2U. Discounts apply to all ranges. In addition to the vast range of stock they hold in store, they have hundreds of pattern and sample books to browse through in their showrooms or, you can take away samples to check and match against your individual colour scheme in the comfort of your own home.

Vinyls

The vinyl selection is endless at prices to suit everyone. In the store they stock remnants of all sizes: 2,3 and 4 metre widths with discounts of up to 75% off normal cut length prices. Any time of the day, every day you can go to Carpets Direct 2U and buy a cut-price piece of vinyl, 2m x 2m for £25. If you want a particular range or you don't see what you're looking for, you can order just what you want from a number of sample books and normally get it delivered the very next day.

Fitting Service

Carpets Direct 2U offers a fully comprehensive service, provided by a team of self employed professional fitters with vast experience in the flooring industry. If you require underlay Carpets Direct 2U stock a variety and sell it at discounted roll prices, which is half the normal cut length price.

"Everyone's tastes are different whether it be 100% wool carpets or 100% polypropylene stain resistant carpets. The one thing every customer wants is quality carpets at the best possible price and that's what we give at Carpets Direct 2U." adds Robert.

Shared ownership, offered by Bromleys of Hednesford, can get you on the property ladder in Spain

Chance to own a share of Espana

DREAMS of a luxury villa, Spain and sangria are often shattered by harsh economic reality.

One alternative method of buying property in Spain is through a shared ownership scheme.

This offers an opportunity to get a foot onto the Spanish property ladder for a fraction of the cost of outright ownership.

An alternative means of buying property in Spain

Shared ownership schemes, sometimes known as seasonal ownership, offer a certain number of people the opportunity to own part of a Spanish property.

They are entitled to use the Spanish property for a set period each year and they pay only a percentage of the price and running costs. For example, a quarter share would entitle you to the exclusive use of the Spanish property for three predetermined months each year.

Depending on the format you sign up to, you may be able to acquire a more flexible entitlement – two weeks per quarter etc.

So, Spain, and that luxury villa, might not be an impossible dream after all.

You may feel that buying property in Spain is unnecessarily expensive considering it would only be used for part of the year.

Also, shared ownership may mean you can afford a higher quality of Spanish property than buying outright.

For instance, instead of a crowded apartment development you may opt for a luxury villa in Spain. Other advantages of buying Spanish property in this way:

- secures you a holiday home which is maintained in your absence.
- you become a Spanish property owner while reducing purchase and running costs.
- your Spanish property will generate equity.

A final quarter share is available in this luxury villa in Spain on the sunny Costa Blanca valued at £280,000 the price for the quarter share is £70,000.

For this Spanish property purchase you should allow an additional six per cent on top for legal fees, notary fees, land registry, VAT (IVA) or transfer tax and stamp duty.

Further details contact Bromleys on 01543 878 111 or visit 48 Market Street, Hednesford, Staffs WS12 1AG

Fiat embraces a greener future but still offers a rev-happy car which is fun to drive

Ultimate clean machine

FIAT'S award-winning new TwinAir concept is set to transform how drivers view petrol power's potential.

The technologically advanced low consumption 875cc two-cylinder engine is the cleanest quantity production petrol engine in the world. Yet it still manages to combine a rev-happy fun appeal with significantly more power than larger capacity four cylinder units.

The 85bhp version of the engine makes its UK debut this month under the bonnet of Fiat's iconic 500. Installing a two-cylinder engine in a Fiat 500 might seem like paying homage to the original 13 bhp model of 1957, but this decision is not primarily a sentimental one.

In complete compliance with the essential requirements of the 21st century car owner, the TwinAir engine offers an attractive means of downsizing while substantially reducing fuel consumption and exhaust emissions, but without sacrificing power or driver enjoyment.

Combined with the Fiat 500's many other attributes, this powertrain is expected to appeal to a wide variety of customers including many who may not have considered Fiat before.

Those who care about the environment will find the TwinAir's low CO2 figure appealing, as will owners who are keen to keep costs down.

And it should also find favour with trend setters, drivers interested in innovation and new technologies, and of course customers who enjoy dynamic and fun driving. Consequently more than a fifth of future Fiat 500 sales are forecast to be TwinAir versions.

The new 875cc TwinAir engine is expected to account for a fifth of Fiat 500 UK sales

500C cabrios have the new engine too

The interior is just as stylish as before

Weighing just 85kg, and with figures of 95g/km of CO2, this ground-breaking engine has the lowest emissions of any quantity production petrol engine.

However its 85bhp makes the Fiat 500 TwinAir among the most powerful mainstream A segment vehicles on sale.

And with its 145Nm of torque at a relatively low 1,900rpm, it's a responsive and fun-to-drive engine too. This combination of cleanliness and power even compares favourably with many rivals' diesel engines.

Improved

Compared with Fiat's best-selling 1.2-litre petrol engine in the Fiat 500, the TwinAir delivers 23 per cent more power yet combines this with a 15 per cent reduction in CO2 emissions and fuel consumption. These amazing results have been achieved thanks to a combination of factors. FPT's MultiAir technology, as employed by a 2010 International Engine of the Year winner, plays a major part in this by reducing consumption and emissions. Combining MultiAir with a turbocharger helps to optimise performance at low revs while reductions in weight and size help boost performance and responsiveness.

In addition, the timing chain drastically cuts engine running costs because it is maintenance-free. Finally, a balancing countershaft reduces vibrations to give the smoothness and refinement of a four-cylinder.

This technology comes in a Fiat 500 that is already firmly established on the motoring landscape. And it features all the assets that have made this car such a hit. There's a choice of slick-shifting manual change five-speed gearboxes alongside the Dualogic robotised manual. This allows drivers who want automatic shifting to prompt changes simply by pushing or pulling the gear lever.

There's an extensive list of standard equipment including the all-important safety suite of ABS anti-lock brakes and Electronic Brakeforce Distribution, which along with seven airbags, have helped the Fiat 500 become EuroNCAP crash safety five-star rated. There's also a wide-ranging options list and huge scope for owners to personalise their cars, as with other Fiat 500s. On top of that, every TwinAir-equipped Fiat 500 will feature Start&Stop and a Gear Shift Indicator to help drivers achieve the best economy possible. In addition, owners can specify Fiat's award-winning Blue&Me infotainment system which allows drivers to operate their music and phone via the car's steering wheel controls or with voice activation.

Blue&Me TomTom also includes Fiat's ground-breaking eco:Drive system to give real-time fuel consumption information and advice on how to get the best economy out of the Fiat 500. As well as offering a unique proposition of power with low CO2 emissions, the high-tech Fiat 500 TwinAir is extremely competitively priced, costing from £10,665 in Pop specification. The TwinAir engine will be available across the Fiat 500 and Fiat 500C ranges in all trim levels.

Skoda unveils new range of 4x4 models

A new four-wheel drive diesel version of the Octavia Estate, above, has been launched by Skoda

SKODA has announced a series of four-wheel drive versions for its popular Octavia and Superb ranges.

Building on its multi-award winning product line-up, the Czech firm will introduce a 4x4 2.0 TDI CR 140bhp engine with automatic DSG transmission to hatchback and estate versions of the Superb, Octavia Estate and Octavia Scout.

The advanced four-wheel drive system is designed to tackle those challenging conditions that would leave two-wheel drive competitors stranded.

Power distribution is controlled electronically by a fourth-generation Haldex clutch. Under normal traction conditions, 96 per cent of the total power is directed to the front axle.

In adverse weather conditions – similar to those experienced in the UK last winter – the Haldex system reacts in a split second to redirect power to those wheels with better traction, greatly increasing driving safety.

Consumption

The 4×4s capabilities aren't limited to wintry conditions. In summer months the 4×4 technology will ensure that towing caravans and trailers is easier and safer, and, because drive to the rear wheels is disengaged when not required, there's little adverse effect on fuel consumption.

The introduction of an automatic twin-clutch DSG gearbox to the existing 2.0 TDI CR 140bhp engine adds to Skoda's broad range of four-wheel drive cars which now includes Octavia Estate, Octavia Scout, Yeti, Superb hatch, and Superb Estate.

The Octavia Estate in 4x4 form is available to order from this month, with prices starting at £21,705 on the road.

Superb 4x4 prices start at £22,935 and range up to £26,705 for an Elegance 166 model.

Lexus reveals pricing for compact hybid car

LEXUS has revealed the pricing for its new compact premium hybrid car, the CT 200h.

On-the-road pricing starts at £23,485 for the SE-I model, inclusive of VAT at 20 per cent. This takes into account the fact that, although orders may be placed now, the sales tax rate must be applied at the time of delivery – and the first cars will reach customers early in 2011.

In the UK the CT 200h will be available in three equipment grades, SE-I, SE-L (from £25,200) and SE-L Premier (£30,635).

Across the board equipment specifications reflect Lexus's focus on peerless quality and refinement, plus segment-leading safety provisions.

Competitive pricing aside, ownership costs are kept low thanks to the high fuel efficiency and ultra-low emissions performance of the Lexus petrol/electric hybrid powertrain.The CT 200h emits just 94g/km of carbon dioxide and therefore falls into the lowest Band A rating for vehicle excise duty – hence a zero annual road tax bill and a 10 per cent Benefit-in-Kind charge for company car tax payers.

Equipment specifications

High equipment specifications are an established feature of all Lexus models and the new CT 200h sustains this reputation across all three model grades – SE-I, SE-L and SE-L Premier.

Of particular note are the first-in-segment LED headlights fitted as standard to the SE-L Premier and the availability of Lexus's advanced radar-controlled Pre-Crash Safety (PCS) system and Adaptive Cruise Control (ACC).

The CT 200h also adopts Lexus's Remote Touch multi-function control, for simple and intuitive operation of ventilation, navigation, phone and vehicle set-up systems.

For all CT 200h grades, customers can choose between the 16-inch alloy wheels, optimised for a refined and comfortable driving experience, and the 17-inch alloy wheels, for more agility and dynamic appeal.

The competition

As well as commanding an advantage in terms of fuel economy and low emissions, the Lexus CT 200h offers motorists a competitive price advantage, when like-for-like specifications are compared.

For example, to meet the equipment features of the CT 200h SE-I – the model expected to account for the majority of sales – BMW 118d SE drivers would need to find almost an extra £1,700.

Juniors recover to make it magnificent seven on trot

WYRLEY TIGERS U-10S 1 SHIRE OAK PANTHERS 1

TIGERS started brightly and took the lead when Josh Smith set up Man of the Match William Meredith.

Shire Oak had the bulk of possession in the second half and a well-taken goal earned them a point.

SPORTING KHALSA 2 WYRLEY TIGERS U-10S 7

Man of the Match Josh Smith scored a quickfire hat-trick to set Tigers on their way. Tom Wheeldon and Elliot Crook, one a penalty, both scored twice.

CHURCH FARM WHITES U-9S 1 LICHFIELD VIKINGS 0

Historically there has been very little between the two teams and this game proved likewise. A 40th minute winner from Callum Smith won the game for Whites, who move up to third in the league. Man of the Match was Max Finch in goal.

CHURCH FARM BLUES 2 LEA HALL 6

Blues stunned Lea Hall with two goals in the first five minutes from Man of the Match Luke Poxen.

Rampant Rovers hit Lounge for six

AMINGTON ROVERS 6 PARADISE LOUNGE 1

LOUNGE were hit for six by league leaders Amington Rovers despite a battling display at Beacon Park.

Amington – who smashed Lichfield Social 11-1 seven days earlier – opened the scoring on the quarter-hour mark.

Paradise, defending well all over the pitch, refused to be overwhelmed by the early pacesetters in Division 2 and were unlucky to be a goal down at half-time.

But the second-half was barely under way when centre-half Ben

PARADISE LOUNGE

Lowe clattered Amington's winger in the area and the referee pointed to the spot. Prolific striker Simeon Smith converted from 12 yards and then, moments after the restart, Paradise were awarded a penalty of their own when player-boss Dale Harley was tripped.

Simon Owen fired wide in what proved to be, along with Lowe's mistimed tackle at the other end, crucial to the outcome.

A quickfire double increased Amington's advantage before Harley pulled a goal back with a superb half-volley.

The Lounge came close to reducing the deficit but rampant Rovers added two late goals.

Harley, who made his first start of the season after a succession of injuries, felt the scoreline was an unfair reflection.

"This was always going to be a tough test and that showed from the start," he said.

"I thought we matched them for much of the game.

"We kept plugging away but just lacked the clinical finishing to match the hard work we put in."

Pike providing sport, while trout fishing is on top form

THE first match in the Blackfords AC winter league series was held at Calf Heath Reservoir last week and the silver fish only event was won by Mark Greening with 35lb 13oz followed by Dave Ridgeway with 32lb 9oz and Clive Brown 27lb 12oz. The weights demonstrate that the venue continues to fish well despite the cooler conditions.

Other Blackfords club waters are still producing fish to the seasoned anglers fishing, with bream, roach and perch making up most of the bags. Pike are beginning to provide some sport and we have had a report of a 12lb pike caught at Calf Heath, a venue that is supposed to be void of the species!

The Fisherwick Lakes open match proved to be a tough one,Carl Redman took the honours with a bag of roach and skimmers weighing 7lb 6oz, Nick Lockwood and Martin Thornton were second and third with 4lb 7oz and 2lb 2oz respectivley. Trout fishing is still on top

Effort and spirit can't be faulted

CHASETOWN LADIES

STAFFORD TOWN 6 CHASETOWN LADIES 2

CHASETOWN put in an excellent performance against a technically very good Stafford side. The effort of the players can't be faulted and Cha1setown did score the goal of the match.

Stafford Town took just five minutes to take the lead from a well taken corner. Within a further 15 minutes it was 3-0 with the third a penalty.

Chasetown, who had rarely been seeing possession, then hit back with a stunning goal that Jade Arber finished off from 30 yards.

A breakaway goal by Sinead Treanor gave Chasetown hope at half-time but Stafford Town took a hold of the game and scored again in the 55th and 65th minutes.

As fatigue set in Stafford scored again to make the final score 6-2. Not an unfair score line but Chasetown can't be faulted for effort and spirit.

Haycock earns deserved draw

HEATH HAYES 1 KIRKBY MUXLOE 1 – MIDLAND FOOTBALL ALLIANCE

HEATH HAYES FC

HAYES came from behind to earn a hard-fought draw against their fourth placed opponents.

Both sides endeavoured to play some good football on a heavy pitch but in the main defences were well on top. Hayes had a couple of early chances but Deakin's efforts lacked power.

Garry Moult and the speedy Nick Pollard always looked a threat for the visitors but Andrew Tuck, returning after suspension, marshalled the home defence well.

The best chance of the first half fell to Peter Howell who headed wide Ben Haseley's cross with the goal at his mercy. After the break the visitors enjoyed their best spell of the game and it was no surprise when they took a 55th minute lead.

A deep cross from Tom Hill was headed home by Stuart Verrall with the Hayes defence all leaving it for each other to clear the danger. Crutchley then had to make a smart save to prevent Moult adding to the score.

Hayes weathered the storm and visiting keeper Tom Holyoak had to be at his best to keep out excellent efforts from Waple and Haseley.

The equaliser came in the 84th minute when substitute Alan Haycock took advantage of an error by Holyoak to grab a deserved share of the spoils in a very entertaining and hard fought game.

City second team in an 11-goal rout

LOUGHBOROUGH STUDENTS 4 CANNOCK 1ST XI 1

THREE games without defeat had seen Cannock climb of the bottom of the National League Premier Division table.

However, Cannock failed to turn up, a fact which has been stated too many times this season already.

Dave Harris's seventh goal of the season proved nowhere near enough as Loughborough smashed four past England keeper James Fair. This Sunday (November 14) Cannock entertain Canterbury in a real "six-pointer" at Chase Park, 2pm push back.

LOUGHBOROUGH LIONS 5 CANNOCK STAGS XI 1

Despite taking the lead early in the game and dominating the first 15 minutes the Stags came away with nothing.

Tom Morris's goal gave the visitors the lead but the Stags were punished by two short corner decisions against them which resulted in two goals from the home side. With illness, injuries and lethargy the Stags never really mounted a challenge in the second half and although five goals flattered the home side.

CANNOCK 2ND XI 4 BELPER 2NDS 2

Cannock second string were looking for victory to try and continue their surge back to the top of the table.

They got it courtesy of single strikes from captain James Roberts, Paul Harris, Dan Beck and Mandeep Sandhar as Cannock chalked up their fourth victory in six league games.

This Saturday, they face a tough trip to Beeston.

BEESTON 3RD XI 2 CANNOCK 3RD XI 2

Cannock 3rds made the afternoon trip to Nottingham for what has always been a competitive game.

Both sides will be disappointed to have drawn.

Chris Bolt's seventh goal of the season and a rare drag flick strike for Nick Middleton earned Cannock a share of the spoils.

Cannock face Nottingham University next Saturday at Chase Park.

CANNOCK 4TH XI 1 WARWICK UNIVERSITY 4TH XI 0

Consider this: The 4th team have never scored more than one goal in a game and kept three clean sheets.

They lie fourth in the league but have a goal difference of minus two.

They have both the lowest number of goals scored and conceded yet are six positions higher in the league than at the same point last season.

So, more positives than negatives but still work to be done.

Matt Sanders scored the only goal with a fiercely driven reverse shot from the top of the D. This weekend, the 4ths take on Leek.

WORCESTER 5TH XI 2 CANNOCK 5TH XI 2

Cannock 5th team travelled to Worcester for the second time this season.

After a good victory the previous week against North Stafford, hopes were high for Karl Owen and his team as Worcester sat bottom of the division.

Sadly, the words reliable and consistent never tend to be words that you can use to describe the 5th team and just when expectation may have begun to creep in, the team comes crashing down as they earned a solitary point with goals from Raff Moscatiello and George Myatt.

The momentum of three games unbeaten carries the 5ths into this week's home clash against Sutton Coldfield.

CANNOCK 7TH XI 8 BARLASTON VINES XI 0

Cannock 7th team completed a well executed victory against Barlaston Vines.

There was a single strike for captain Phil Hubert, another Karl Bayliss double, and five goals for the 'machine' Jonny Machin!

CANNOCK BADGERS 'A' 4 CANNOCK BADGERS 'B' 4

Cannock's two badgers sides came together on Saturday afternoon for a friendly.

The entertaining affair finished 4-4 with Reece Jecketts getting four goals himself as well as single strikes for the other side from Ollie Edwards, Callum Swinnerton-Ions and Lewis Michael.

HEREFORD VETS XI 5 CANNOCK VETS XI 4

Cannock's Over-40s travelled to Hereford for the second round of the Vets EH Cup and played in a memorable game where both sides played with spirit, honesty and sportsmanship. A Chris Mayer hat-trick and single Chris Salmon strike were not enough for the visitors as they failed to make the third round.

CANNOCK LADIES 2ND XI 3 DONCASTER LADIES 2NDS 0

CANNOCK LADIES 3RD XI 0 STAFFORD LADIES 1ST XI 5

Cannock Ladies 3rd team suffered their first defeat in three weeks to a strong Stafford side who simply out fought them.

CANNOCK LADIES 5TH XI 1 STAFFORD LADIES 3RD XI 2

Cannock Ladies 5th team faced a really tough game against league leaders Stafford but enjoyed the majority of first half possession.

Shannon Deakin gave Cannock a half-time lead but Stafford came back with two second half strikes.

CANNOCK LADIES 6TH XI 0 UTTOXETER LADIES 3RD XI 3

Cannock Ladies 6th team entertained Uttoxeter third team in their return to league action.

Captain Teresa Martin and her team were looking to continue their solid start to the campaign but came unstuck as a quicker thinking Uttoxeter side and they had no answer to the visitors' slick moving hockey.

Special mention to Sian Howes who performed admirably in defence in her first game.

CANNOCK LADIES VIXENS 2 WOLVERHAMPTON LADIES VIXENS 1

A fantastic performance by Cannock was rewarded with their first victory of the season.

After going one goal down early in the game the girls showed considerable effort and determination to come back into the match and score two goals.

DERBY ASTERDALE 0 LICHFIELD MENS 5TH XI 3

Lichfield 5ths travelled to Derby Asterdale looking to maintain their unbeaten run since gaining promotion.

Derby Asterdale proved to be stern opposition in defence while not creating many attacking moves, but Lichfield won the day thanks to a Harry Carpenter brace and a first goal for the club from Jamie Wright.

The Men's 8ths beat Yardley 2-1 thanks to goals from Jared Cordes and Jeevan Garcha.

LICHFIELD LADIES 4TH XI 7 BLOXWICH 4THS 0

Lichfield put seven goals past bottom of the table Bloxwich to cement their position at the top of the table.

Goals came from a hat-trick by Di Millar and one apiece from Robyn Budge, Lindsey Evans, Dawn Brown and Hatty Cavill.

Lichfield Hockey Club's under-14s side

Rivals snatch win in dying minutes

LAST Sunday (November 7), Lichfield Hockey Club hosted a friendly festival between Belper, Cannock and Lichfield Under 14 Boys.

In the first game Lichfield played a strong Belper side and won 4-1 with two goals from Finlay Saunders, one a flick over the onrushing keeper, one for Jeevan Garcha and one for Oliver Mason. Finlay Saunders was awarded Man of the Match for this game during which both Harry Benson and Jonathan Groves worked tirelessly in midfield and Edward Bowen dominated at the back.

In the second game Lichfield took on the mighty Cannock who had beaten them earlier this season. However Lichfield went 3-1 up early in the second half with goals from Oliver Mason (2) and one from Jeevan Garcha.

Cannock are never to be underestimated, though and they came back to win 4-3 in the dying seconds, Man of the Match was Jake Clempson in goal.

Backline remains unbroken as Cannock reach the final

CANNOCK 42 ST LEONARDS 0 – OWEN CUP SEMI FINAL

A BRIGHT sunny autumn day at the Morgan Ground provided the perfect conditions for Cannock's positive style of rugby in the Owen Cup semi final.

Cannock and the visitors St Leonards exchanged blows for the first 10 minutes with neither team coming out on top until Aiden Cheshire smashed through the away team's defensive line, leaving would be tacklers in his wake. With a jink of his hips Cheshire glided past the 15 before running in under the posts.

Freeman stepped up to take the 'certain' conversion but managed to shank it wide.

Throughout the game the set piece of both teams were effective ensuring that the ball spent a lot of time with the backs. From a midfield scrum the Cannock back line moved the ball through the hands to put winger Pedley one-on-one with his opposite number, a glorious inside out step put him in for his second try in two games. The unconverted try put Cannock 10 points to the good.

The remainder of the first half saw St Leonards struggling to retain any possession and the Cannock back row were effective in stealing ball from the break down area.

The third try came when Radcliffe collected ball in open field, his line of running carrying him across two thirds of the pitch, leaving defenders in his wake before an uncharacteristically deft off load put Cheshire in for his second of the game.

RUGBY

Scott Pedley got Cannock's fourth, and his second in two games. The fifth try came from a ridiculously audacious chip from loose head prop Palli . Smythe chased the kick and his presence petrified the winger into inaction leaving the ball for Smythe to scoop the ball and run into the corner. After earlier misses Freeman added the extra two points.

The second half began much as the first one ended, with Cannock dominating play. Great work at the break down earned Cannock a penalty which Freeman put away for 30-0.

Clever breaks from Murphy and marauding runs from Cheshire ensured that Cannock spent the next 20 minutes in the away team's half. A try on the break from Radcliffe and a crashing pick and drive from the base of the scrum by number 8 Cheshire, celebrating his 40th birthday, the second of which was converted, finished the scoring for Cannock.

The next 15 minutes saw St Leonards with a period of possession. However Cannock defended their line, led by Dave Evans, and Cannock's line remained unbroken all afternoon. Frustration became ill-discipline for the Stafford outfit in the last five minutes as both the captain and vice captain were shown the yellow card.

Cannock's senior teams train on Wednesday from 7 to 8.30pm. The junior section trains at10.30am on Saturdays. Players of all abilities are always welcome.

LICHFIELD 48 WALSALL 18

The Walsall team showed seven changes from the side that had a much needed league win just seven days before.

Several players from the successful United team were given the opportunity to taste the demands of first team rugby in this Staffordshire Cup semi-final. Also included for the first time was Jonathan Edwards, a young Australian who has only recently arrived at Delves Road.

Walsall made an encouraging start, producing several good attacks in the opening minutes. But they only had a Andy Hawkins penalty to reward them for their endeavour. Even this score was soon equalled as the hosts put over a penalty. within a minute of the Walsall score.

Lichfield got their first try after 12 minutes, the Myrtle Greens' first visit into the Walsall 22, and a simple catch and drive saw them score wide out. Massey put over a fine conversion to give them a 10-3 lead.

Another fairly basic scrum half and back row move got the hosts their next score after 20 minutes. The visitors struck back with a very good try which started deep in their own half,Tom Emes finishing off the attack.

Just before half time, a high tackle gifted Lichfield an easy penalty. But despite a period of long pressure Walsall failed to add to their tally before the interval.

The visitors dominated the second half in terms of possession and territory, but only had a penalty and one try to show for their efforts. Lichfield, in contrast, were confident to use their sharp backs at every opportunity, and were rewarded with four more tries. Walsall's score came in the closing stages, through lock Rob Tierney.

Streets ahead in fundraising game

CHASETOWN FC

WITH two money-spinning cup runs in the last five years as well as a meteoric rise through the divisions, there is no doubt Chasetown are a team on the up.

The Scholars are now playing at their highest ever level within the football pyramid, having risen all the way up from the Midland Alliance in 2005 to their current status in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League. They now lie just two levels below the Blue Square Premier.

Ambitious plans are in the pipeline to transform Chasetown's Church Street ground, which has seen attendances increase to record numbers since the club's turn in fortunes.

Boss Charlie Blakemore may have led the club through the most successful period in its history. Yet, the Chasetown success story is not just happening on the field.

Behind the scenes, too, there is an army of willing volunteers that the club relies heavily upon.

One, Beth Street, became involved in the club as they embarked on their first cup run to the first round proper against Oldham Athletic in 2005. The club went even further two season later, beating Port Vale en route to a Third Round tie against Cardiff City.

And, from watching on the terraces, the 14-year-old Chase Terrace Technology College student is now instrumental in the Scholars' fundraising efforts.

She raised more than £1,000 from an auction that she organised herself and now writes off to companies with details of match sponsorship packages. So far, only a handful of games remain available between now and the end of the season, with The Chronicle taking up the offer to sponsor this weekend's league game against Ashton United.

"I first decided to raise money for the club physio's fund," said Beth, "as my two favourite players, Danny Smith and Dean Perrow were injured. I wrote off to clubs to get signed shirts or some other memorabilia and what they sent was auctioned off."

The Year 10 student's efforts have not gone unrecognised by the club's commercial manager Steve Maden. He said without people such as Beth, the club would find it harder to run and to establish itself.

"We are like one big happy family,"he said. "Yet we couldn't do it without them. Everyone here plays their part and we have big plans to take this club even further."

Match sponsorship packages cost £200. It includes a pre-match meal for four people, a reserved car parking space, the sponsors' name on the match programme and a mention over the PA system. In addition, the sponsor receives a free programme, half-time and full-time refreshments and a framed photograph as well as a signed ball.

A matchball sponsorship deal costs £100 but does not include the pre-match meal. For details of all sponsorship opportunities at the club, from players' kits to advertising boards and programme ads and mascot deals, call commercial manager Steve Maden on 07538 184774 or e-mail stevemaden@instantemail.t-mobile.co.uk

Saturday's game (November 13) kicks off at 3pm. And as a further incentive to attract even more through the gate, the club has introduced a 'Kids for a Quid' scheme. normal adult rates of £8 apply.

The Scholars were last night (Wednesday) travelling to Buxton for an Evo-Stik League game.

Meanwhile, Chasetown have been awarded the Evo-Stik Premier Division Fair Play award for the month of October. The award is sponsored by league drinks sponsor Soccerade, and the prize of a 1.5 litre bottle of whisky will be presented at an upcoming home match to be announced.

Two provisional fixtures have been agreed for Chasetown, the visit of FC United of Manchester on Wednesday December 1 and the first round Evo-Stik League Cup game at home to Newcastle Town or Chester on Tuesday December 7.

Scholars fans can still long in to http://evostik-league.pitchero.com/evo-video-competition.php to vote for Chasetown to win £10,000 towards ground improvements. The competition closes on Monday (November 15).

Pitmen players celebrate the opening goal scored by Simon Brown

DREAM DEBUT FOR MIGHTY QUINN AS HE HITS WINNER

TIVERTON TOWN 1 HEDNESFORD 2

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

A DREAM debut for substitute Danny Quinn secured victory for Hednesford Town as the young striker, plucked from Midland Alliance obscurity by Rob Smith, scored a dramatic 89th minute winner.

The late win moves the Pitmen above Chippenham and Chesham into fifth place and sees Rob Smith's side sit happily in the play off places.

Hednesford dominated the opening half hour without truly testing Ryan Draper in the Tiverton goal.

Chris Clements twice curled free kicks inches wide of the post but a well-balanced away side struggled with the final ball.

The first shot on target came after 32 minutes when Ben Bailey's miscued clearance let in Adam Mortimer to bear down on goal and force Dan Crane into a quality save. Pitmen left winger Simon Brown threatened on 39 minutes when his curling ball in found Marvin Robinson whose header brought the best out of Draper. Brown broke the deadlock on the stroke of half time when he lashed in a well controlled volley through a crowd of players after Tiverton had failed to clear their lines.

The home side started the second half much the stronger and within three minutes had equalised when Ian Sampson was brought down by Darren Campion and the right back dusted himself down to convert from the spot.

Hednesford looked shaky following the equaliser but in a three minute period around the hour mark would have taken the lead if not for poor accuracy in front of goal.

In-form Hednesford striker Marvin Robinson inexplicably got himself sent off on 73 minutes when, following a correct decision by the referee on the edge of Tiverton's penalty area, he insulted the linesman and was given his marching orders for foul and abusive language.

Despite the unnecessary red card, Rob Smith showed real fortitude by keeping both Brown and Quinn upfront to search for an unlikely winner.

As the game looked to be heading for a draw the new boy stepped up and, with his first sight of goal in a Hednesford shirt, volleyed clinically into the net.

Cue fanatical celebrations on the pitch and in the stands as the Pitmen followed up a famous win at local rivals Chasetown on Tuesday night with an even more important win in the league as their promotion push gathers pace.

Tuesday night's Birmingham Senior Cup tie at Boldmere St Michael's was called off.

Hednesford entertain Cirencester on Saturday (November 13) for a Zamaretto League game, kick off 3pm before Stourbridge visit Keys Park next Tuesday (November 16), for a 7.45pm kick off.

'Mile High' confirms his spot at Grand Slam

DARTS

RUGELEY darts player Mark 'Mile High' Hylton has qualified for the Grand Slam of Darts at Wolverhampton's Civic Hall – but faces a tough task.

The left-hander has been drawn with UK Open runner-up Gary Anderson, former BDO world champion Mark Webster and Wolverhampton's very own Wayne Jones.

The televised ITV event starts at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Saturday (November 13) with a round robin of eight groups preceding a knockout stage.

Hylton was one of four players to win a Wildcard entry via a qualifying tournament last week.

Along with Wes Newton, Justin Pipe and John Henderson, he battled through a field of 269 at the Barnsley Metrodome to claim his spot.

The 44-year-old overcame two-time world champion Dennis Priestley 4-2 in the final qualifying round and declared himself speechless after the contest.

He said: "This means a huge amount to me because I've become a full-time professional this year and it's paying off for me now.

"To qualify is special but to beat someone as respected as Dennis to do so is the icing on the cake."

Hylton, who won the Australian Open Players Championship earlier this year, defeated Coventry's Kevin Dowling and Stoke's Ian White on his way to the latter stages, before whitewashing Northern Ireland's 69-year-old John MaGowan.

Held in Wolverhampton every year since its inception in 2007, the Grand Slam carries with it a £100,000 prize for the winner.

Phil 'The Power' Taylor has won all three tournaments to date.

Meanwhile, Priestley and former World Number 1 Colin 'Jaws' Lloyd will be in exhibition in Penkridge on Friday November 26 to raise funds for the Midlands Air Ambulance.

They will be taking on members of the audience in the Stafford Suite at the Hatherton Country Hotel, in Pinfold Lane.

This is the fourth event that has been organised by local business woman, Vicki Cutler, which has already seen almost £3,000 raised.

Popular five-year-old sensation Alfie 'double-top' Galloway will be playing the professionals. Tickets are £10 and there will be a raffle and auction on the night for darting memorabilia.

To book tickets or for advertising enquiries, call Vicki on 07974 578103.
